RICHARD G. MOORE
Grand Master, 1993-1994

RICHARD GROVES MOORE

Richard Groves (Rick) Moore was born March 11, 1935 in Gastonia, North Carolina. The fourth of six children of the late Brother and Dr. Oliver S. and Anna M. Moore of Mt. Holly, North Carolina. He attended the Gaston County Schools and graduated from Mt. Holly High School where he lettered in varsity football and basketball. He furthered his education at the University of South Carolina, majoring in business administration. He was a member of Sigma Chi Fraternity.

In community life he is a former member and Director of the Mt. Holly Jaycees and Past President of the Mt. Holly Civitan Club. Rick and his wife, Marie are active members of Calvary United Methodist Church in Charlotte where he serves as Vice-Chairman of the Administrative Board and Chairman of the Pastor/Parish Staff Relations Committee.

Rick and Marie reside on Lake Norman in Lincoln County. He has three sons, Tony, Chris and Mike, a daughter, Pam and stepson, David and seven granddaughters.

Brother Moore was employed in the finance and accounting departments of Piedmont Natural Gas Co., served as Controller for Impac, Inc. and a Regional Controller for the Ervin Co. before being appointed Secretary of the Charlotte Scottish Rite Bodies March 20, 1978.

In the summer of 1978 the Valley of Charlotte started construction of its new Temple which was completed in September 1979. Upon completion of the Temple it was necessary for the valley to borrow $500,000, for a term of twenty years, in order to pay construction costs. Working closely with Brothers Fred Trethewey, Isadore Silverstein, G. Dick Pierce, Walter F. McCall and the Advisory Conference, Brother Moore carefully monitored the financial affairs of the Valley which enabled it to pay off its loan in six and one-half years and set aside an adequate reserve fund for maintenance of the Temple.

In July 1988 the Valley of Charlotte opened a Childhood Language Disorders Clinic at the University of North Carolina at Charlotte. The establishment of this Clinic was Brother Moore's fulfillment of a commitment made to the late M.·.W.·. and Ill. Brother James Guy Johnston, Past Grand Master and Sovereign Grand Inspector General, that upon paying off the indebtedness of the Temple, the Valley of Charlotte would establish and finance a Clinic to help these special children. In order for the brethren to become more involved in working with the children the Clinic was moved from the University to the Scottish Rite Temple in January, 1993.

Rick's Masonic career began when he was raised a Master Mason in Mt. Holly Lodge No. 544 on May 20, 1957. He was appointed an officer in this Lodge in 1964 and served as Master in 1968. He served as District Dèputy Grand Master for the 54th Masonic District in 1971 and 1972 at which time he moved to South Carolina. Upon moving back to North Carolina in 1978, he served as a member of the Masonic Education Committee and Board of Appeals of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina. In 1986, Brother Moore was appointed Grand Steward of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina by M.·.W.·.Brother Walter F. McCall. Brother Moore is a life member of Mt. Holly Lodge No. 544, and holds honorary memberships in South Fork Lodge No. 462, Lowell Lodge No. 590, Belmont Lodge No. 627 and Stanley Lodge No. 713. He is a member of the Honorary Legion of Honor of the Order of DeMolay.

In November, 1963, he took his Scottish Rite degrees in Charlotte. During his thirty years of active participation in the Scottish Rite, he has served as ritualist, ambassador, class marshal, administrative assistant and class co-director. He was invested with the rank and decoration of Knight Commander of the Court of Honour in 1969, served as Venerable Master in 1973, coroneted an Inspector General Honorary, 33rd Degree, in 1975 and served as Master of the Kadosh in 1976. He currently serves on the Board of Directors of the North Carolina Scottish Rite Masonic Foundation.

Rick is a member of the Gastonia York Rite Bodies, North Carolina College, Societas Rosicruciana in Civitatibus Foederatis and St. Titus Conclave, Red Cross of Constantine.

In March, 1964, Rick crossed the hot sands and was created a member of the Ancient Arabic Order of Nobles of the Mystic Shrine in Oasis Temple. During his years of active participation in the Shrine, he was a member of the Drum & Bugle Corps for fifteen years, served as Chairman of the Players Award Banquet for the Shrine Bowl of the Carolinas for several years, served as a member of the Temple staff, and a member and officer of the Ritualistic Cast. He is currently a member of the Past Masters Unit and a member and officer of Charlotte Court No. 109, Royal Order of Jesters. He was made a life member of Oasis Temple in January, 1993 and holds honorary memberships in Sudan and Hejaz Temples.

When not involved in Masonic activities, he enjoys participating with his family in water sports and family outings. However, snow skiing is the first love of Marie and Rick and they ski the mountains of North Carolina whenever the weather permits and usually try to go skiing in Colorado at least once a year.

Rick is deeply appreciative of his association with his Masonic mentors—W.·.Brother Raymond E. Ryne, M.·.W.·.Brother W. Edward Burrier, M.·.W.·.Brother James Guy Johnston, M.·.W.·.Brother Walter F. McCall and W.·.Brother H. Lloyd Wilkerson—who were generous in sharing with him their vast Masonic knowledge.

Being allowed to be one of the representatives of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina at the celebration of the 275th anniversary of the United Grand Lodge of England, held in London in June 1992, is considered by Rick to be the highlight of his Masonic career. In addition, he is particularly proud that all his Masonic memberships are in the same locations as were his Fathers.

It is Brother Moore's sincere hope and prayer his year of service as Grand Master will be pleasing to God, his parents and his brethren.

PRESENTATION OF GRAND LODGE FURNITURE

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

Greetings to one and all at this the 206th Anniversary of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons of North Carolina.

It is with a great deal of pleasure we present to this Grand Lodge, at the request of Right Worshipful Brother Richard G. Moore, Deputy Grand Master, three Officers' Pedestals and Columns, a small contribution of the handy work of Worshipful Brothers J. Ralph Pinion, Robert J. Sizemore and me. They are presented in memory of two brothers who had a profound impact on my future as a young man and were an inspiration to my becoming a Mason.

The Grand Master's Pedestal is presented in memory of Brother Oscar Bass, Sr., a member of Bilbro Lodge No. 716, F. & A. M., Birmingham, Alabama, who was born on April 1, 1888 and died on August 11, 1957. Brother Bass was initiated on January 15, 1953, passed on February 12, 1953, and raised to the Sublime Degree of Master Mason on February 28, 1953.

The Grand Wardens' Pedestals are presented in memory of a brother who was the president of the company for which I worked (Jenkins Metal Corp. in Gastonia, N. C.) twenty-eight years. Mr. Robert Bain Jenkins, Sr. was the first-line signer on my petition for Masonry and also raised me to the upright position of Master Mason. Brother Robert Bain Jenkins, Sr. was born October 30, 1904 and passed away on June 17, 1988. Brother Jenkins was at the time of his death a member of Holland Memorial Lodge No. 668, A. F. & A. M., Gastonia, North Carolina, the lodge in which I received those first instructions upon which to build my future and moral conduct. Brother Jenkins was initiated on October 14, 1943, passed on November 11, 1943 and raised to the Sublime Degree of Master Mason on December 9, 1943.

The Wardens' Columns and their carrying case are presented by West Gate Lodge No. 738, A. F. & A. M., Charlotte, Mecklenburg County, North Carolina.

The granite tops for the Pedestals and Altar (the Grand Lodge emblem is engraved in the center) are presented by Brother Abner B. Fortner, Jr., a member of Charles M. Setzer Lodge No. 693.

The Wardens' Columns and carrying case were designed and built by two Past Masters of West Gate Lodge No. 738, A. F. & A. M., Worshipful Brother Oscar Bass, Jr. and Worshipful Brother Robert J. Sizemore.

The Pedestals were designed and built by two Past Masters, one Worshipful Brother J. Ralph Pinion of Steele Creek Lodge No. 737, A. F. & A. M., and Worshipful Brother Oscar Bass, Jr., of West Gate Lodge No. 738, A. F. & A. M.

It is our sincere wish that these Columns and Pedestals be of service to our Grand Lodge for many years to come. We sincerely hope and pray that the principle of the Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man, and our relationship to God shall always be the foundation stones of our great fraternity.

ADDRESS OF THE GRAND ORATOR

(Docket No. 1)

The Grand Master presented W.·.Brother James G. Martin, Grand Orator of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina, who delivered the following oration:

Most Worshipful Grand Master; Distinguished and Honored Guests; Members of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina; my Brother Masons all:

The ritual and lessons of the Order of Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons instruct each of us in our obligations to our fellowman, to our Brother Masons, their widows and orphans, and to ourselves. I speak to you this morning about our responsibility to our fellowman. . .to society at large.

Let me share with you a series of happenings in my life which have taught me certain important lessons of honesty and integrity. These anecdotes are true. They also arise out of my political career, so I will do my best to sanitize them in nonpartisan form, so that their meaning should not be misconstrued.

Before Masonry entered my life, and before the events I am about to recount, I was a content, mild-mannered chemistry professor. . .until that fateful day I was recruited to become a candidate. The county party had sent a delegation to persuade me to run for county commissioner in 1962, over 30 years ago. I was so flattered and impressed by their reasoning that I promptly accepted, and rushed home to share the good news with my wife, Dottie.

One of life's fundamentals is that major decisions must be carefully prepared. . .not proudly announced. No, Dottie was not thrilled. It was one thing to work for Charlie Jonas as a precinct chairman, but high office was for people who know what they're doing, which I obviously did not, considering how easily swayed I had been. And so on. And had I mentioned to them that I had previously run for Davidson Town Council and lost? If those who knew me best knew better, what would be the verdict of a larger electorate? How much would it cost? And where would I get the money? Technical questions like that.

Having lost my first election effort by 20 votes, I was losing this one by one vote—Dottie's!

With great remorse and embarrassment, I had to phone the party chairman to advise him that whereas I had accepted his invitation to be our party's candidate, but whereas I had neglected certain fundamentals at home, now therefore be it resolved that my candidacy was temporarily withdrawn.

Eventually, as you can imagine, it was all worked out, and I joined our slate against five veteran incumbents of the other party. We were doomed. We knew that we had no chance whatsoever—which was partly the reason Dottie was persuaded it would be a harmless exercise in citizenship.

The rest, as they say, is history. The lesson here, of course, is that great decisions require patient preparations, not proud announcements; and that pride goeth before a fall.

The next top-secret, career-warping event was the selection of our congressional district delegate to the 1968 National Convention of our party. It was destiny calling again, but no one suspected it at the time. State representative Jim Carson, the freshman star of the State House delegation, and I had both been asked to serve. Jim called me on the phone, and suggested that we settle this in a friendly way. I said, "Fine."

Now, picture this, summoning all your imaginative powers of virtual reality imaging. Here we were, I in my office, he in his, talking unseen and unseeing on the telephone. No witnesses. So Carson says to me, "Why don't we settle it by the toss of a coin?" And I said, "Fine!"

So he says, "All right I have just tossed mine and know what it is. Now you toss yours and tell me, and if you match mine, you get to be convention delegate."

I said, "Fine!" Picture that?

Unfortunately, as luck would have it, I did not have a cent in my pocket. My mind was so distracted by that little problem, that I missed the folly of what I was about to do. So I suggested that since no one was watching me, and with or without a coin, my chances were 50:50 anyway, it should be agreeable for me just to call his coin, so I hesitated but a moment for effect, and announced to him, "Ok, I call it heads."

Only then did it occur to my rattled mind that no one was watching Carson either!

Surely, I was doomed again and would deserve what I got. He had me for sure, I was in his power. He wanted it, it was his for the plucking.

Well, ole Jim Carson, sophisticated boy wonder of the state legislature, did not hesitate at all. He just calmly replied, "Heads it is! Congratulations and have a good time."

My friends, that is an exact and true account of what happened. . .how I got to be the delegate and eventual leader of the North Carolina delegations's minority supporting Richard Nixon. . .and how I was thus positioned to receive the focus of a lot of attention that led (almost inexorably) to the next higher office four years later.

All by the luck of one toss of one coin: Carson's. Mine really didn't matter. His did, all because he was so honest that he could not be other than truthful with me, and yield his prize.

Another profound lesson occurred when I was first running for Congress in 1972, well behind my opponent. An appointment had been made for me to see Phil Van Every, former mayor and the powerful chairman of Lance Inc. That surprised me, because I knew that Mr. Van Every had been rather angered by my statement in 1968 after the death of Martin Luther King, Jr., that we should take the initiative locally to exorcise any local rules or ordinances interfering with the rights of minorities to choose for themselves where they wanted to live.

We met, and sure enough, after the preliminaries Mr. Van Every excused the others, and the "moment of truth" had arrived. With me sitting back, low on the sofa, looking up at him with trepidation and a dry throat (a position experienced previously while being intimidated by a used car salesman); Mr. Van Every got right to the point.

"Tell me," he said, his bushy eyebrows driving home the message, "tell me about the Open Housing position you took a couple years ago." Here it was, so I tightened up and described my philosophy that all Americans should be free to choose where to live, where to shop, where to worship, and so forth; hoping mightily that it would not come across as lecturing him.

Then, with those eyebrows bunching like two fists, ready to punch me out, he asked abruptly whether I still felt that way. All I could think was what a great and devoted Mason, Pete Peterson, my fellow commissioner, had always instilled into me: that the truth was the best response; so I told him yes, and gave a very short justification.

His eyes bore right down into my very soul, and I could only wonder if I would be permitted to walk out, and if so, would my legs buckle and fail me? When this face before me suddenly went benign, and beatific; and an almost cheerful Phil Van Every told me in no uncertain terms: "Then you are my candidate." I was choking and almost missed what he was saying. "You have my complete support. Had you changed you belief to suit me," he said, "had you cracked under the little pressure I put to you today, I would surely worry about your ability to withstand real pressure in Washington. But you passed this little test. Always vote your convictions and do what you think is right, and that's all I ask of you to represent me. One thing you can count on," he concluded, "you will never hear any instructions or special requests for favors from me."

It was a powerful lesson from a powerful man. And support me he did, to the limit. His whole family did, with early money, enabling us to make early moves even while far behind. And true to his word, he never once told me what to do or asked a special favor the rest of his life.

There was one day, shortly after I had been named to the tax-writing Ways and Means Committee, that a lobbyist for the fig paste industry came by to see me. He had a little bill rescinding the tariff on imported fig paste, and he wanted me to introduce it. "Why me?" I asked. "Because Lance is in your district. They make Fig Bars." Well that sounded reasonable enough, but I was surprised how blunt he was about it. While he stood there, I placed a call to Phil Van Every's number, and told him his man was there with a fig paste bill. "What man?" Well, he says you want me to introduce his bill." "Let me talk to him," Phil was climbing right through the phone line, so I handed the phone to the lobbyist and watched while his neck reddened and sweat broke out over his eyebrows. He said good-bye to Mr. Van Every and handed me the phone and left without another word. I did not introduce it, but later, I voted for the fig paste bill as an amendment, but I never felt like anybody had told me to do it except my own judgment.

One more personal anecdote from my most recent career deserves to be told. You may know that North Carolina is the only state whose Governor does not have the veto. In 1988, there developed a remarkable opportunity to achieve that goal which had eluded all previous Governors of our great State.

We were engaged in a titanic struggle involving a reform-minded, bipartisan coalition, seeking to elect a reform-minded Speaker of the House. At the height of the battle, I received an emissary from the other side, offering to help me get the veto amendment passed in return for my assistance to re-elect the incumbent Speaker, whom we were trying to replace. This kind of "friendly" exchange goes on all the time in parliamentary circles, and all it meant was an effort to see if my support had a price.

What a powerful deal it would have been! There was no doubt in my mind that he could deliver on his offer. History would record that I had won the veto, and all I had to do was betray sixty-five legislators who had trusted in me for leadership and courage. All I had to do was sell them out.

So, if ever I had learned any lesson in integrity, it was called upon once again. It was "no deal." No, history will not accord me credit for winning the veto, although we came very close to passing it with bipartisan support. But neither will it record that integrity was compromised when the stakes were high. I'll settle for that.

In retrospect, one can look back over that time and see the results of a lot of hard work. Our county commissioners had achieved a great record, breaking the single party rule there, and showing that we could provide the leadership needed for local school financing, mental health facilities, and initiatives for environmental protection, including the first countywide zoning in North Carolina. And we started countywide water and sewer services.

In Congress, I was involved in tax reform, health care issues, food safety, saving saccharin and had a pivotal role as floor leader opposing the dangerous but rhetorically clever nuclear freeze legislation.

Then in Raleigh, I helped build a healthy, more competitive two-party system and helped overthrow the pork-barrel system used to discipline legislators to vote the way they were told. We opened up the closed-door atmosphere so the people could see decisions being made. Sustantively, we increased school funding $1.5 billion, twice what any previous Governor had done; just by putting first priorities first, and began the important reforms deregulating schools and decentralizing educational decision-making. We doubled highway construction, thereby equaling the highway expansion leadership of all previous governors combined, enacting a truly historic commitment to unify North Carolina with a 3,600 mile unbroken network of 4-lane expressways, reaching within 10 miles of 96 percent of our people. Yes, we raised taxes to do that, but hardly anybody complained, because this time they knew they would get something for their money. And over the last five years, we have attracted more new factories than any other state, with over a hundred each year. Nobody else did that. And last year we tied Texas for first place for all major facility investments, new and expanded, manufacturing and non-manufacturing, with 405. The next state was Ohio with 319. It was the first time anybody had beaten Florida.

Better Schools, Better Roads, Better Jobs. That was our motto.

A Better North Carolina: One Truly United State!

Certainly, those were satisfying, even historic achievements—if not always newsworthy. But none of that happened without first winning elections to get into position to do what is needed. Before historic achievements, you not only have to win elections; you also have to learn the lessons that help you to retain your character and integrity. Otherwise; no one will take you seriously. No one will follow. No one will work for you. No one will care.

That's why my message to you today has been not the exhaustive narrative of the great issues and the struggle which aught availeth or not. My message is instead about the personal relationships which determine the outcome. Because it is that inner personal relationship that counts for everything. It is in Shakespeare's Hamlet that the elder Polonius advises his son who is departing on a great adventure: "First, to thine own self be true. It will follow, as the night, the day, thou cans't not then be false to any man."

Thank You.

REPORT OF THE AUDITOR

(Docket No. 4)

The following report of Brother David Scobie, Certified Public Accountant, Auditor, was received, entered on the record and referred to the Committee on Finance:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

I have audited the accompanying balance sheet of The Grand Lodge of A.F. & A.M. of North Carolina as of December 31, 1992 and 1991, and the related statements of support and revenue, expenses, capital additions and changes in fund balances and of cash flows for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of management. My responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on my audit.

I conducted my audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that I plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. I believe that my audit provides a reasonable basis for my opinion.

In my opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of The Grand Lodge of A.F. & A.M. of North Carolina as of December 31, 1992 and 1991, and the results of its operations and cash flows for the years then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

My examination was made for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The accompanying schedule of support and revenue, expenses, capital additions and changes in fund balance—general fund, by sub-fund and schedule of support and revenue, expenses, capital additions and changes in fund balance—operating fund are presented for purposes of additional information and are not a required part of the basic financial statements. Such information has not been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the examination of the basic financial statements and, accordingly, I express no opinion on them.

Respectfully submitted,
DAVID E. SCOBIE
Grand Lodge Accountant

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT MASONIC AND EASTERN STAR HOME OF NORTH CAROLINA, INC.

(Docket No. 9)

The following report of Brother Tommy L. Jones, Superintendent of the Masonic and Eastern Star Home, Inc. was received, entered on the record, and referred to the Board of Directors:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

This Report for the year ending December 31, 1992 marks the close of the 79th year of continuous operation of The Masonic and Eastern Star Home and constitutes my thirteenth annual Report. The Report is divided into four parts: A) General Comments; B) Service Rendered 1992; C) Maintenance of Buildings and Grounds; D) In Appreciation. As in years past, the Home's finances can be found in the Board of Directors' Report.

A. General Comments

Despite the perplexities involved, I feel the Home for the most part has been successful during the past year in providing quality care for 226 residents, in providing a warm, working atmosphere for the employees, in maintaining the structures and repairs to the existing buildings, in the continuous beautification of the grounds, and in staying within the confines of a large budget. It has been and continues to be an enormous task attempting to satisfy the needs and desires of both the residents and employees, and, at the same time, to work harmoniously with the Board. In addition to these tasks, the story of the Home with all of its complexities must be reported constantly and factually to the Masons and Stars across the state.

The Home maintains membership in the: 1) North Carolina Association of Non-Profit Homes for the Aging. 2) American Association of Homes for the Aging. 3) Masonic Homes Executives' Association of North America. 4) Piedmont Long Term Nursing Directors Association. 5) Guilford County Association of Nursing Home Administrators. I received an honor by being selected as the Vice-President of the Masonic Executives' Association of North America, which means in two years I will serve as President.

The Home has met and continues to meet all requirements and standards as set forth by both the state and local governments for nursing and retirement homes. In many instances these standards have been surpassed, but the Board of Directors and The Grand Lodge must understand that federal, state and local regulations are constantly alterating with modifications of the old, and with entirely new standards. An example of the first is the repair of the existing sprinkler system, an example of the second is the American Disabilities Act, which mandates ramps and larger exits for wheelchairs. The Home is meeting the standards and is held accountable to:

1. The Division of Facility Services of The North Carolina Department of Human Resources,
2. The North Carolina Department of Insurance—Nursing Home Disclosure Statement,
3. The Greensboro Fire Department Code, and
4. The Guilford County Sanitation Department.

Although I have an inclination of what lies ahead in some areas of providing quality care, I can neither foresee nor predict the problems facing us as the result of governmental policy, and, yes, even Board plans of action. I do know we must continually remind ourselves of the reason for our Home's existence as spelled out in the Charter on June 18, 1910—"The purpose of this Corporation shall be to build, operate and maintain a home for the aged and indigent Masons, aged and indigent wives of Masons, and such other relatives of Masons as the Board of Directors shall provide." The primary question in all decisions and all policy changes should be, how will this decision or policy affect not only the present residents but those of the future?

B. Service Rendered 1992

I have listed below statistical tables of the service provided our residents for the year 1992 in regards to enrollment, days of care, the waiting list, and some comparisons between the years 1991 and 1992. One noteworthy fact is that, although there was one less admission and eight more deaths in 1992, the total number of residents cared for was larger. The average daily enrollment of 202 was the same for both years.

This Report to The Grand Lodge would be too long to list and comment about each resident entering and each passing away. However, to keep these residents from being just a statistical number, I have made some comments about each in my quarterly reports to the Board. These reports are preserved as a part of the Board Minutes and some relative or friend at a future time can come to the Home and get information about their deceased loved one.

In closing this portion of my Report, I would be remiss without commenting briefly about the medical services provided. During the decade of the 80's under the leadership of the Home's Physician for twenty-two years, Doctor and Brother Norman Garrett, the Home secured the in-house services of a dermatologist (81), dentist (84), ophthalmologist (87), and psychiatrist (88). For the past four years, including 1992, these services have been maintained but no new services have been added. Any large budget cutback would probably necessitate a reduction in some of these services.

C. Maintenance of Buildings and Grounds

After making all efforts to provide quality care for each resident, the next major emphasis is to maintain, repair and update the buildings, and to landscape, beautify and keep the grounds clean and neat. I elaborated in last year's Report of the advancing age of our buildings, and, because of this age, the difficulty in keeping them attractive and comfortable. However, I can, without hesitation, sincerely report to The Grand Lodge of my elated feelings about all the major repairs and renovations that have taken place on these grounds for the past twelve years. I can also report that today the Maintenance Department has better leadership and is more skilled than in previous years. From observing while walking around the grounds, I can state truthfully the beauty of the trees, shrubs, and flower beds have never been surpassed.

While I am gratified on the one hand of sustaining our efforts in maintaining our aging buildings for the past twelve years, I must report that on the other hand I am disappointed no progress had been made in capital improvement, particularly in expansion of the Care Center and in providing more independent apartments. Why? I do not have an answer.

I have listed below major repairs for the year 1992.

1. The electrical circuits were rewired in the kitchen for equal distribution and the prevention of power failures.
2. For safety precautions, dusk to dawn lights were placed on the back side of both the Latham and Bennette Buildings and on the storage equipment building.
3. The roof was replaced on the corridors connecting the Linville Building with the Chapel and the Setzer Building with the Bass Care Center.
4. The major sewer line for the Latham Building (1949) was replaced after finding the old one broken and crushed.
5. The exteriors of the Chapel and all of the corridors were repainted.
6. The condensate pump which returns all water to the boiler room was replaced.
7. Old corroded valves in both boilers were replaced.
8. The generator is now serviced periodically by contract and is being run once a week under a load for 30 minutes in preparation for a power failure.
9. After 30 years of use, the Setzer Building (1962) roof was replaced.
10. After 35 years of continuous, safe service, the large boiler was retubed after pin holes were found in the old tubes during a safety check under water pressure.
11. During January and February of 1993, a new sewer line for the Care Center, Kitchen and Laundry was installed. The installation solved a 15-year problem of backup, of which the roto-rooter could give only temporary, periodic relief.

Beginning January 1, 1993 the Home adopted a "smoke-free" policy in order to assure the health and safety of residents, employees and visitors. Residents who smoke (very few) are allowed to smoke in their private rooms. All other areas inside the home are off limits.

D. In Appreciation

Any Report to The Grand Lodge from the Home would be incomplete without expressing my appreciation and deep gratitude for the many thousands who have continuously supported the Home financially and in various other ways through the years. It would be impossible to list by name everyone. One of the blessings I have received from my tenure as Superintendent is the hundreds of friends made by contact while traveling the state and telling the story about the Home.

I want to sincerely thank all the residents who, for the most part, realize the need for order, rules and regulations for a family of this size and, therefore, cooperate for the benefit of all. I consider myself one of them and look at each as a friend.

One distinct advantage of our Home over others is the splendid staff of employees assembled here through the years. Their loyalty, dedication, devotion, and love for the Home and residents cannot be measured. Many have turned down higher paying positions, which illustrates they are not laboring here daily only for wages. In surveying other nursing homes and labor relations, both The Grand Lodge and the Board of Directors are fortunate to have a staff with small employee turnover and abiding dedication. I want to give special recognition to three employees. Mrs. Susie Hubbard, the Pharmacist for over twenty years, retired on September 1, 1992. Her love for the Home for so long continues to be expressed by her frequent visits and escorts on bus trips. Mrs. Ella Payne and Brother David Ford, the Assistant Administrator and Business Manager, have provided excellent service and leadership in their respective fields. Mrs. Payne has given twenty-two years of her life to the Home; Brother Ford's devotion now exceeds twelve years. No tribute can express fairly their contributions in helping to provide the quality care expected by and extended to our elderly Sisters and Brothers.

For the Blue Lodges who have given their financial support unstintedly to the Home, I give my sincere heartfelt thanks. Recognition should also be given here to the Appendant Bodies who felt the need to be financially supportive: Oxford York Rite Bodies, Asheville Scottish Rite Bodies, Jacksonville Chapter Order of DeMolay, Association of Capitular Masons, Inc., The Brushy Mountain Shrine, and The Grand York Rite Bodies.

In closing, I want to express my profound gratitude for the personal support I have received from residents, employees and from the many Masons and Stars around the state. Without knowing of this support, the tasks and expectations would be too burdensome to perform each day.

Respectfully submitted,
TOMMY L. JONES
Superintendent

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE MASONIC AND EASTERN STAR HOME OF NORTH CAROLINA, INC.

(Docket No. 10)

The following report of the Board of Directors of the Masonic and Eastern Star Home was received and entered on the record:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

Confident of the abiding interest of every Mason in North Carolina, the Board of Directors submits its annual Report of The Masonic and Eastern Star Home for the year ending December 31, 1992.

During 1992 the Board held its regular Saturday quarterly meetings on February 8, May 9, August 15, and November 14. All of the meetings were well attended with few absentees. Seven Committees—Personnel, Finance, Buildings and Grounds, Real Estate, Admissions, Long Range Planning, and Investment—made a report at each meeting. In addition to these reports, the Business Manager, Assistant Administrator and the Superintendent submitted reports dealing with the finances, the care extended to the residents and the maintenance and upkeep of the buildings and grounds.

The Admissions Committee met each Friday preceding the Saturday Board Meeting to interview each applicant. Thirty-four applicants were approved and the Admissions Committee is to be congratulated for their thorough screening of the applicants and their competent reports to the Board.

Because the Board meets only four times each year and because the Board Members rarely visit between meetings, we must, by the very nature of this arrangement, rely heavily on the administration and employees to provide all the necessary care to our residents and to maintain our physical plant. We must have trust in their judgments. We must assume their decisions are fair and in each case we believe a spirit of toleration prevails. We commend the administration and each employee for their dedication and perseverance in carrying out their daily tasks.

The Board is grateful to Grand Master Norris and Brothers Dr. William Bellois, P.G.M., Jack Ferguson, and Robert Vaughan for their time and services during the past three years. An appreciation also goes to Worthy Grand Matron Gwendolyn Oakley, Worthy Grand Patron Hylton Wright and Sister Kathryne McRacken, P.G.M., for their efforts in helping to make the Home a better place to live and work.

Although the operating expense budget continues to increase each year, and the Board remains concerned about matching income, the Board is happy to report that 1992 was the 12th straight year there was an excess of total income over total expense. As a result, the Home's Endowment is steadily growing.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE MASONIC AND EASTERN STAR HOME

(Docket No. 11)

The Report of the Committee on the Masonic and Eastern Star Home, Inc., was received, entered on the record, and referred to the Board of Directors:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

We, the undersigned members of the Committee on the Masonic and Eastern Star Home, met at the Home February 12, 1993 at 10:00 a.m. to conduct our inspection. It was a cold, rainy and gloomy day outside but it was completely different inside. Everyone, especially the guests, were in high spirits and it made our visit that much more pleasant. We met with Brother Tommy Jones in his office and had a lengthy discussion about the operation of the Home and the present and future needs. Brother Jones was obligated to other business at the Home and introduced us to Ella Payne, Assistant Superintendent, who gave us a very detailed tour of all the buildings and grounds. In the Care Center, we were met and conducted by Ms. Beverly Burton, Director of Nursing. We thanked her for the fine job she did in explaining the operation of the Care Center. She is to be complimented for the wonderful service she and the staff do, for this is the most difficult area at the Home.

After enjoying a delicious meal in the cafeteria, we visited the apartments and toured the grounds. Concluding our visit, we all agreed that the buildings were very clean and in good sound condition. One of the shortcomings has been storage space for the guests personal belongings and out of season clothes. This was being solved by having lockers built for the guests use. We know the ladies needed this and have already put them to good use.

The one recommendation that we would suggest is to have some investigation into building more apartments. We feel there are enough Brothers and Sisters on the waiting list who may be interested in pre-purchasing apartments to get the down-payment on the project.

REPORT OF THE SUPERINTENDENT OF OXFORD ORPHANAGE

(Docket No. 12)

The following report of Brother David R. Grissom, Superintendent of Oxford Orphanage, Inc., was received, entered on the record, and referred to the Board of Directors:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

During 1992, a beautiful Masonic Home for children known as Oxford Orphanage celebrated 119 years of rich history. Nestled among the old oak trees that have felt the presence of many needy children, of all ages, over the years, there is a quality of care that the Masons, alumni, and friends have supported and the results have been very successful.

In 1992, Oxford Orphanage continued its proud heritage as all the programs and activities assisted the children with quality care and stability. One of the areas that has proven successful is the Independent Living Program located in the Masters Cottage. All the students who live in this beautiful college dormitory attend Vance-Granville College. It is required that each student maintain a 2.0 average and work a part-time job as a way of learning responsibility and gain a deeper understanding on how to utilize time management. Already, five students who will graduate in June 1993, are preparing to move to the Independent Living Program and we wish them much success as they anticipate a bright future.

In addition, Oxford Orphanage continues to appreciate the support the children receive from the Granville County Public School System. Since education is such a vital part of our children, it is very important that we give careful attention to the learning skills of each child. As you can imagine, a number of the children who are admitted to Oxford Orphanage have no study skills and education has never been viewed as important. However, once at the Orphanage, our staff and the Granville County teachers take seriously that the children's educational needs must be met. Fortunately, several teachers have been willing to offer tutorial assistance to those students who need help and a number of staff members are utilizing some of their time several afternoons a week to offer special assistance to older students in math and science. Because of the extra assistance provided to our students, we anticipate continued improvement in grades as well as in the level of self-esteem.

In addition, the Pre-Kindergarten Program is in its second year and has proven to be very successful. As this class is located in the lower level of the York Rite Memorial Chapel, it is evident the children enjoy their beautiful facility. Since this program is sponsored by the Granville County Public School System, the children are bused to their class and returned to their homes at the end of the day, except for the students who live on campus. This has been an excellent way that Oxford Orphanage has offered assistance to a beautiful group of small children and the public relations in our community has been very rewarding.

During 1992, the census has maintained an average of 150 students between the ages of three to twenty-one years of age. As our Craft reads this report, all the Masonic lodges across North Carolina are urged to be sensitive to the needs of children in their particular communities. Oxford Orphanage can accommodate approximately fifty more deserving children who need quality care and can benefit from the programs this beautiful facility provides. Our Masons are encouraged to educate teachers, ministers and various people in their communities who hear of the needs of children and can recommend them to Oxford Orphanage. If any of our Masons need assistance regarding admission of children to Oxford Orphanage, please do not hesitate to call or write and our Director of Admissions, Brother Don Sizemore, or a member of our administrative staff will be delighted to assist.

As you read through this Annual Report for 1992, the reader will understand that much has been done on the campus of Oxford Orphanage. Each department has made tremendous contributions toward helping all of the children who are entrusted to our care and we are deeply grateful to our Masons, alumni, and friends for supporting us in all of our endeavors.

We especially appreciate the outstanding success that was experienced during St. John's Day in June 1992. As approximately 15,000 Masons, their families and friends visited our campus, it was evident that the visitors of all ages enjoyed a beautiful day under the oaks. We continue to express appreciation to our three Shrine Temples, Amran, Oasis and Sudan, for the wonderful parade and food that was prepared for those in attendance. It takes a large number of people to prepare for this day, as this is the largest Masonic event in our state each year and we are deeply grateful for all of those wonderful brethren and friends who offer their assistance.

A special thanks is extended to Brother Lloyd Young, Chairman of the St. John's Day and his committee, for the time and preparation that is made to make this day meaningful for those who attend. This committee and the children and staff extend to all of our dear friends and Masons a special invitation to attend the upcoming St. John's Day on June 26, 1993. Admission is free but you are urged to bring a big smile and a lounge chair so you can sit "under the oaks" and enjoy a day you will always remember.

Finally, our Board of Directors has provided outstanding leadership and guidance during this 1992 year and the children and staff are deeply grateful for their continued support and guidance. It has been especially encouraging to welcome the wives of our Board members as they always try to travel with their husbands when the Board meets on the campus of Oxford Orphanage four times a year.

We extend our appreciation to Grand Master Ray Norris for his guidance and leadership as he has served as Chairman of our Board of Directors during his year in office. We also extend our gratitude to three of our faithful board members as they conclude their three year term as active and supportive members of our Board. To Brothers Cecil J. Liverman, Past Grand Master and President of our Board, Robert C. Kraus and Robert D. Street, many thanks for your commitment and we look forward to your continued support in the future.

To our wonderful Masons from across the state of North Carolina, our children and staff want you to know the doors of this beautiful home are always open to you as we would appreciate your visits with us. We want you to be informed on the kind of care that is provided to the children because it is through your love, prayers and support that helps us continue a wonderful tradition of quality care for all the children who call this facility their "home."

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF OXFORD ORPHANAGE, INC.

(Docket No. 13)

The following report of the Board of Directors of Oxford Orphanage, Inc. was received and entered on the record:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

The Oxford Orphanage Board of Directors held their quarterly meetings during February, May, August and November of 1992 on the campus of Oxford Orphanage. All of the meetings were very productive as each of the board members worked diligently in each of their respective committees and as a result, constructive ideas were developed to enhance quality care for each of the children at Oxford Orphanage.

During this 1992 year, the Board continues to express appreciation to Mr. Mike Ward, Superintendent of the Granville County Public Schools, his staff and all the supportive teachers who assist our children with their educational endeavors.

A number of the teachers in the five schools where our children attend are to be commended as they try to work with several of our students on a tutorial basis in an effort to help them with their grades. There is a good communication level between the various schools and the Orphanage and if a need arises regarding any of the students, Brother Pat Cox, educational representative or a member of the Orphanage staff will go to the particular schools and offer assistance.

At the end of 1992, the enrollment at Oxford Orphanage included eighty-two boys and sixty-one girls for a total of 143 children who are receiving love, stability and guidance. This number shows a decrease over the previous year as we had 147 children enrolled on January 1, 1992. Throughout 1992, our enrollment averaged 150 students but due to several students returning home, we concluded the year with four less students over the year before.

As we review the total childcare enrollment, it is the goal of the Orphanage to assist all the children and to keep them in care as long as possible. There are circumstances when the children are able to return to their homes as family stability has improved and this is encouraging. However, the Board emphasizes that all Masons across the state remain alert and sensitive to the needs of children around their particular lodges. Many children in communities across the state are not in a stable family environment and could use the services Oxford Orphanage provides. We encourage our Masons and lodges to contact the Orphanage if you have questions regarding how to place a child at this wonderful facility.

We continue to be encouraged with the Independent Living Program which has proven to be of great assistance to our college students. After graduation from J. F. Webb High School, the graduates are given the opportunity to remain on campus for two extra years and attend the local Vance-Granville Community College. After two years, the college students can transfer to a four year college providing their grades are acceptable. At the end of the school year in 1993, five of our high school graduates are scheduled to enroll at Vance-Granville Community College and live in the Independent Living Program.

In addition to the educational programs, the Pre-Kindergarten Program on campus completed its first year in the lower level of the York Rite Memorial Chapel. Although the children in this program are only using the available space as a result of overcrowding at West Oxford Elementary School, it has been gratifying to know these children have a wonderful classroom area to use as they prepare for their first grade year.

As a result of meeting on campus during our quarterly meetings, the Board has found that all departments are operating effectively. Especially important is the care that is given to the children as their needs and concerns are always a priority. After 120 years in continuous childcare, it is wonderful to see the proud heritage of this beautiful home meeting the needs of children now and in the future.

In 1992, approximately 15,000 Masons, their families and friends attended the annual St. John's Day on the campus of Oxford Orphanage. This is the largest Masonic celebration held in our state each year and we are grateful for the wonderful support that is given to this successful event. A special word of thanks is extended to Brother Lloyd Young, Chairman, and his

St. John's Day Committee for the time, energy and preparation that is given to this annual project. In addition, we express our appreciation to the three Shrine temples, Amran, Oasis and Sudan as they provide a parade, food, rides for the children and fun for all those in attendance. As this successful event gets bigger and better each year, be prepared to enjoy another St. John's Day on June 26, 1993 as the only admission fee is a smile and a lounge chair so you can sit "under the oaks" and enjoy a day you will never forget.

Financially, the Board of Directors studies carefully how the budget is utilized each year and it is vital that all donations and expenses be monitored as we want our Craft to know all monies are used wisely. Brother David Ford, Business Manager and Treasurer for both the Orphanage and Masonic and Eastern Star Home, does an excellent job keeping the Boards informed on income and expenses as he audits the financial records on a regular basis so the Boards will always know how the monies are providing quality care. There is a Statement of Income and a Comparative Statement of Expenses that Brother Ford has provided at the conclusion of this report for your information. We hope this will be beneficial to our Craft as we want all of our Masons to know how your gifts are utilized. As you study the report, the children and staff of Oxford Orphanage are very grateful for your continued support as we strive to maintain quality care for all the children.

As you know, Oxford Orphanage is the oldest Masonic Home for Children on its original site in America and we want all of our Craft to visit as frequently as possible. Once you have made the first visit, we know you will look forward to returning on a regular basis.

As we conclude our report, we express our appreciation to Grand Master Ray Norris for his leadership as Chairman of our Board of Directors this year. In addition, we extend our gratitude to three of our Brothers who will complete their three year term as faithful board members. To Past Grand Master and President of the Board, Cecil Liverman, Brother Robert Kraus, Brother Robert Street and Grand Master Ray Norris, we thank you for your guidance and love and we look forward to your continued support in the future.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON OXFORD ORPHANAGE

(Docket No. 14)

The following report of the Committee on Oxford Orphanage was received, entered on the record and referred to the Board of Directors:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:.

As required by Regulation No. 38-17 of the Constitution and Regulations of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina, this committee met at the Orphanage on Friday, February 12, 1993 for its annual visit and examination of the facilities. Members of the committee present were William H. Simpson, Chairman; Cornelius E. Morris, Randy L. Flack and Bryan K. Lassiter.

The committee met in the Administration Building where we were greeted by Brother David Grissom, Superintendent. We soon joined the member of the Board of Directors of the Orphanage in the dining room for a delicious and bountiful lunch.

Following lunch we met in the office of the Superintendent, where we were joined by two other members of the orphanage staff. A lengthy and informative discussion regarding the Orphanage was held.

Our tour of the grounds was restricted by the inclement weather. However, as chairman of the committee it has been my privilege to attend the Board meetings and visit the campus at other times during the year.

The committee found the offices, restrooms, reception area, board room and other areas of the Administrative Building to be clean, orderly and in good condition. The areas were conducive to good work. In addition to providing tasty and wholesome meals the kitchen and dining room were clean, pleasantly decorated and orderly.

The children were in school at the time of our visit. We did visit one of the cottages. The cottage was well equipped, homey and clean. Rooms gave the appearance of being more than adequate, comfortable and "lived in."

We spent a large portion of our time in the York Rite Chapel where considerable amount of remodeling has been accomplished including new gutters, bathrooms with new tile and fixtures, painting, etc. and where additional work has now been approved and will be accomplished soon including a new steeple on the chapel. It was noted that the brick steps at the front of the chapel have cracked and are subject to further damage caused by freezing water. We recommend some attention be given to this problem as soon as feasible.

The grounds were found to be clean and neat, the appearance of the buildings, excellent and well managed.

Your committee is impressed with the care and the effort being exerted by the staff to meet all the needs of the children at the orphanage and to really make the orphanage a home for the children. The census at the time of our visit was 146 and usually averages about 150 during the year. We were informed that care could be provided for 200 children without any strain on the facilities or staff.

Extra tutorial sessions and study halls are being held by staff volunteers in an effort to improve grades. Some needs at the orphanage are magazines, books (including collegiate dictionaries and encyclopedias) and television sets (19-21 inch screens).

The orphanage continues to receive high marks from the state health department. Grades are in the 93-94 range.

We, the Masons of North Carolina, are indebted to the Orphanage Staff and the Board of Directors for the interest, dedication and care exhibited in the orphanage and the children. We appreciate their time and devotion. It's always a thrill to visit the orphanage and this committee would encourage every Mason to visit at every opportunity.

REPORT OF THE REPRESENTATIVE TO THE MASONIC SERVICE ASSOCIATION

(Docket No. 17)

The following report was received and entered on the record. The recommendation that the Grand Lodge continue its membership in MSA was adopted and the matter of finances was referred to the Committee on Finance:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

Your representative attended the 74th Annual Meeting of The Masonic Service Association held in the Arlington Hotel and Spa, Hot Springs, Arkansas on Tuesday, February 23, 1993, at 1:00 P.M. In announcing the opening of the meeting, Most Worshipful Richard E. Fletcher, P.G.M. (Vermont), reminded those in attendance that the Association had been organized in 1919 and it was his desire and purpose that it bring Masons together—not divide them.

The meeting was then called to order by Most Worshipful A. Harold Small, P.G.M. (MT), chairman of the Executive Commission. Following the invocation by the Reverend Thomas E. Weir, P.G.M. (DC), our own Grand Master, Most Worshipful Ray Norris was appointed and served as chairman of this Annual Meeting. Matters which were brought to the attention of those attending the meeting included the following:

There were three appeals made for disaster relief in 1992. These requests came from the Grand Lodges of Florida and Louisiana because of the devastation of hurricane Andrew, and from the Grand Lodge of Hawaii for devastation caused by hurricane Inika. Brother Fletcher reported that there had been received and remitted $274,650 to the Grand Lodge of Florida, $239,250 to the Grand Lodge of Louisiana, and $70,400 to the Grand Lodge of Hawaii. Appropriate responses of appreciation had been received for these contributions.

The Association again published twelve Short-Talk Bulletins during the year, and there are now 840 Short-Talk Bulletins available. The Short-Talk Bulletin continues to be extremely popular. Subscriptions to the Short-Talk Bulletin are $3.00 per year and may be ordered from the Masonic Service Association of the United States, 8120 Fenton Street, Silver Spring, MD 20910-4785. Also, during the year, two new digests were printed (The MSA Annual Report and Masonic Life Line) and six digests were reprinted (Why This Confusion, Trestleboard Tidbits, Program Notebook for Worshipful Masters, Dress Up Your Speech, Masonry Under Two Flags, and Masonic Homes, Hospitals and Charity Funds). All publications by MSA are available for a nominal price.

It was also reported that John Robinson, the author of Born in Blood, has written a new book entitled A Pilgrim's Path: One Man's Road to the Masonic Temple. John is donating $5.00 from the sale of each book sold through June 1, 1993, for the newly created Center for Masonic Information, which has been established and will be administered through the Masonic Service Association. One of the first matters to be undertaken by the Center for Masonic Information is to prepare a response to the "study" being conducted by the Southern Baptist Convention on the compatibility of Christianity and Freemasonry.

All those familiar with the MSA are aware of the importance of the hospital visitation program. The hospital visitation continues to touch the lives of countless hospitalized veterans, Masons and non-Masons alike, who are presently patients in the various Veterans Hospitals throughout the United States. It was with regret that the Association announced the retirement of Tom Dougherty, who has served as director of the program for the past thirteen years. The Executive Committee was pleased to announce, however, that the Reverend Thomas E. Weir, P.G.M. (DC), had accepted appointment as the new director of the hospital visitation program.

It was also reported with sadness the death of six of the volunteer hospital field agents during the year and the retirement of an additional seven field agents. These brethren have given countless hours in volunteer service at their respective hospitals.

Most Worshipful James E. Moseley, P.G.M. (GA) and Recording Secretary, requested that he not be re-elected as the representative of the South Atlantic Division. Most Worshipful Brother Ray Marsh, P.G.M. (SC), was elected to a three-year term on the Executive Commission as a representative of the South Atlantic Division.

It was reported that MSA through the American-Canadian Grand Lodge distributed $5,000 each to the Grand Lodges of Czechoslovakia, Hungary, and Poland during 1992. Responses of appreciation received from the Grand Lodges of Czechoslovakia and Hungary were acknowledged. It was also reported that a new lodge in Russia, Harmony Lodge, which was chartered in Paris in January 1992, had moved to Moscow in September 1992. This lodge was chartered by the Grande Loge Nationale Francaise. A check from the MSA was presented to the Grand Master of France to assist in the work of re-establishing a Grand Lodge in Russia.

Most Worshipful Frank Arnold, Grand Master of Missouri, introduced John Altman, who reported to those in attendance on the special Truman video project now being prepared in Missouri. This video will be a documentary dealing with the contributions of Harry S. Truman, former President of the United States and Past Grand Master of Missouri, to promote world peace. He stated that Harry Truman was perhaps the most powerful individual for the past fifty years and perhaps of the 20th century. In the seven years during which he was President of the United States, he set in place the ground work that contained communism and eventually brought its collapse.

One of the highlights of the meeting was remarks made by Most Worshipful Nicolai Phillipe, Grand Master of Romania. This Brother was sentenced and served seven years in prison at hard labor because he was a Mason. This occurred when communism took over Romania. He stated that after forty-five years of darkness in Romania, Freemasonry had now emerged again, and he was pleased to report that the first or number one lodge in Romania would be named George Washington Lodge in appreciation of assistance provided Freemasonry in Romania by the American Freemasons.

A resolution was presented at the meeting to place the Renewal Task Force under the control of MSA. After some serious discussion regarding the purposes of the Masonic Renewal Task Force and Masonic Service Association, this motion was rejected.

The next meeting of the Association will be held in Crystal City, Virginia in conjunction with the Grand Masters Conference in February 1994.

I make the following recommendations:

1. That we continue our membership in the Masonic Service Association.

2. That we inform all Masons in our Grand Jurisdiction through The North Carolina Mason of the availability of the educational materials to Masons through the Masonic Service Association and that they be encouraged to subscribe to the Short-Talk Bulletins.

3. That the Grand Master continue to schedule visits to the VA Medical Centers located in Asheville, Salisbury, Durham, and Fayetteville, and that other Grand Lodge officers accompany him on these visits when their schedules permit.

4. That we continue our usual contribution to the Masonic Service Association and that we increase this contribution should additional funds be available.

Respectfully submitted,
JERRY G. TART, P.G.M.

REPORT OF THE REPRESENTATIVE TO THE GEORGE WASHINGTON MASONIC NATIONAL MEMORIAL ASSOCIATION

(Docket No. 18)

The following report was received and entered on the record. The recommendation that the Grand Lodge continue its membership was adopted, and the matter of finances was referred to the Committee on Finance:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

Your representative attended the annual communication of The George Washington Masonic National Memorial Association held at the Arlington Resort Hotel and Spa, Hot Springs National Park, Arkansas on February 22, 1993, at 1:00 P.M. This was the 61st annual communication since the dedication of the Memorial in 1932.

The meeting was called to order by Most Worshipful Charles A. Brigman, Jr., P.G.M. (Ohio). Following the invocation, Most Worshipful Brigman reminded those Grand Masters in attendance that the Memorial was owned by the fifty-one Grand Lodges in the United States, and thus it was their responsibility and duty to take an active role in the management and support of the Memorial. He next appointed Most Worshipful Werner H. Morlock, Grand Master (Virginia) to represent the Association and place a wreath at Mount Vernon on the 261st anniversary of George Washington's birth.

The report of the Executive Secretary-Treasurer, Michael McLaughlin, was given by Most Worshipful Edgar N. Peppler, P.G.M. (NJ). In his report, Brother McLaughlin noted this would be his final report as he was resigning after six years of service. He further reported that the financial situation for the Memorial was bleak and pointed out this arose from a loss of revenues which were occasioned by the declining interest paid on our investments and the decline in new petitions for membership, since a number of the states (43) made a contribution of $5.00 for each new member initiated, and in recent years we have seen a decline in petitions being processed by the lodges throughout the nation. Coupled with this loss of income, we have seen an increase in the expenses to operate the Memorial in all categories or areas. The result is that while we have managed to survive for the past few years, we have done so only by postponing some much needed repairs to the Memorial, which is now sixty years old.

Most Worshipful Brother Brigman then gave his report as president of the Memorial Association. In his report, he noted that Dr. Glassmire, a member of the Executive Committee and a strong supporter of the Association for many years, had found it necessary to resign due to health reasons. Brother Brigman appointed Most Worshipful Warren H. Lichty, P.G.M. (Nebraska), to complete the term of Dr. Glassmire on the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors.

Brother Brigman reported that the tower lighting system had now been replaced and pointed out that the fixtures had been contributed by General Electric and the installation had been done by Truland at a reduced cost. The new system will be much more economical to operate, and there are plans as funds become available to do further work in this area for the remaining portion of the lighting system.

Brother Brigman also emphasized that the Memorial offers a tremendous window to members of the fraternity, as well as non-members, of a look into Masonic life. The construction of the Memorial is considered the most significant Masonic achievement of the 20th century.

He further reported that in an effort to disseminate more information about the Memorial that a traveling display kit had been prepared which was available to any Masonic group upon request. There is also a slide presentation which has been prepared and may be borrowed from the Association by contacting the Executive Secretary.

Brother Brigman recognized and expressed the appreciation of the Association to the seven board members who completed their three-year term with this annual communication. Your representative was included in this group.

Worshipful Brother Clark H. Wertheim of Massachusetts was recognized and presented a plaque as the State Chairman of the Year for the outstanding service he has performed on behalf of the Association.

Brother Brigman then discussed that the building is there but we have reached the point that we do not have sufficient funds to properly maintain and operate it, and we must obtain this financial support or what we have will be lost from lack of maintenance. The present budget requires approximately $700,000 to meet necessary operating expenses and required maintenance. For the past few years, the Association has received approximately $585,000 per year in revenues or there has been a shortfall of approximately $115,000 per year. The Association has survived only by deferring necessary and needed maintenance items.

Various fund raising projects are being considered in addition to the Cornerstone Campaign, which has been going on for several years, and the $5.00 per initiate program, which has been in existence for a number of years. Among those items being considered for implementation are the following:

1. Some Grand Jurisdictions have obtained approval for allocating a set portion (generally 50 cents per member) of the per capita tax they collect to be contributed to the Association for the maintenance and operation of the Memorial.

2. The Executive Committee is considering a mail/label card program provided they can obtain assistance from the several Grand Lodges in securing mailing lists of members in the various Grand Jurisdictions. Obviously, such a program cannot be successful unless we have available a very large mailing list.

3. A commemorative Grandfather clock has been designed and may be "test marketed" in several states. Assuming it is successful in these states, then the program will become a nationwide effort.

4. Three hundred of the lithograph prints of George Washington have been sold. Approximately 700 remain available to any individual or group interested in obtaining a copy. They make excellent gifts to lodges.

5. Contributions for the replacement of the museum windows ($7,500 per window) have been received from several lodges, Grand Jurisdictions, Scottish Rite Valleys, and similar groups. It is hoped that additional groups will come forward.

I would invite and encourage anyone who is visiting in the Washington, D.C. area to allow a few hours time to stop by and visit the George Washington Masonic National Memorial. Masons and their families and non-Masons alike will all enjoy touring this beautiful building and viewing the many exhibits of George Washington memorabilia.

The next meeting at the Association will be held in the Memorial in February 1994.

I make the following recommendations:

1. That we continue our membership in The George Washington Masonic National Memorial Association.

2. That the Grand Lodge of North Carolina adopt and participate in the program (as adopted by 43 other Grand Jurisdictions) whereby each candidate for the degrees of Freemasonry contributes as a part of the initiation fee pay the sum of $5.00 as a contribution to The George Washington Masonic National Memorial Association, said sum to be collected by the lodge and remitted to the Grand Secretary, who, in turn, shall remit same to the Memorial.

3. That in the event the Grand Lodge does not adopt the $5.00 per candidate program, that this Grand Lodge make a contribution of an additional $5,000 to the Memorial at this time to assist it in defraying necessary operation and maintenance expense.

4. That this Grand Jurisdiction encourage lodges and individual members through appropriate articles in The North Carolina Mason to visit when possible and to support financially The George Washington Masonic National Memorial Association.

5. That the Grand Lodge encourage individual brethren to become life members of the Memorial. This requires a one-time donation of $250.00 (Persons interested can contact the undersigned or the Grand Secretary for forms and additional information.)

Respectfully submitted,
JERRY G. TART, P.G.M.

The Board of the North Carolina Masonic Foundation, Inc., respectfully presents the following balance sheet and statement of revenue, expense and changes in fund balances for which the Foundation is custodian.

At a regular meeting of the Board, the following officers were elected: Brother, Sam A. Hennis, Jr., President; Brother Charles E. Scott, Vice-President; and Brother W. David Ford, Secretary and Treasurer.

Monthly meetings are held by the Board and the investment portfolio and objectives of the Foundation are reviewed in detail. The investment policy of the Board continues to be safety of principal first and income production second. With this conservative approach the Board was still able to divide $299,385.72 between the Orphanage and Home during 1992.

We are grateful to all who have been a part of the success of the Foundation and would like to solicit from those who have not contributed to please do so as we feel that your Masonic Foundation will ultimately be the salvation for our two homes.

REPORT OF THE GRAND HISTORIAN

(Docket No. 25)

The following report of the Grand Historian was received and entered on the record:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

For some years, the Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge was held in January, reportedly because many members of the state legislature were Masons and were also meeting in Raleigh in January. While this arrangement was admittedly a convenience for our Masonic legislators, the dead-of-winter meetings must have imposed considerable hardship upon other Masons desiring to attend Grand Lodge, travel conditions being what they were in those days.

At any rate, the 1893 Annual Communication, a century past, opened in Raleigh at 7:30 P.M. on January 10. St. John's No. 1 (Wilmington) was the oldest lodge represented and the youngest represented was Clyde No. 453 (Clyde). Only sixty-three percent of the 277 lodges were represented, according to the final report of the Credentials Committee. It is not illogical to assume that weather and travel conditions played some role in the failure of 103 lodges to attend Grand Lodge a century ago.

The first order of business was the report of Grand Master Hezekiah A. Gudger, who was, as were so many Masons of that day, an eloquent speaker. He spoke at a time when Masonry was prospering, when membership gains were sizeable, yet he sounded a note of caution to the Masons assembled before him one-hundred years ago. Hear him:

> "As Masons we are early taught trust in God and faith in our brethren; the beauties of charity and other Christian graces. Are we practical Masons or drones whose names are simply registered in the records of the Order? Masonry was never so popular throughout the civilized world as it is today; never so prosperous in every respect. In this lies the danger that menaces the ancient landmarks, and that must be faced and corrected before we go into serious error. It is, perhaps, too popular to be a Mason.
> "The term 'Mason' has been a synonym for a high standard of moral character in all its bearings and attributes. Many rely on this without a proper exertion to put into practical life the glorious tenets it inculcates.

"The question naturally arises and will not down, are we closely adhering to the great precepts enjoined by the teachings of the Order, or are we merging into ritualism, ceremonials and gaudy display, attracting the profane more by what we profess than what we actually do?

"The underlying governing principles of the fraternity are faith, hope and charity. Have you, as an individual Mason, exemplified your profession of faith by your daily walk and conversation, and strengthened your hope of the final reward that awaits all who hold out faithful to the end? Have you been blessed in your worldly store and possessions? If so, have you sought out the poor and needy brother, his widow and orphan, and given them such relief as was within your means? Have you visited the sick and afflicted and comforted them in a substantial manner? Have you spoken kindly and in sympathy with the disappointed and broken-hearted brother 'by words true and tender'? Have you in true and fraternal spirit gone to the erring and wayward, and in that manner of earnest pleading that only a brother can appreciate told him, not of his fault, but of the imminent dangers that are in his course, and gently warned him, and offered assistance in the great fight for manhood and right?

"It is indeed well that we should pause on the threshold of the new year and ponder well these things. The past is gone, save as a lesson; the future opens up great possibilities for us all. If theory, beautiful as it is, is to sap our ancient and honored Order of practical works, then the world will write us a failure and all good men hail with gladness its dissolution. If it should go into this, the ancient bulwarks would fall, crushed by unbelief, and the popular idea would be all that is let of this time-honored and grand structure, which has in its best days withstood the attacks of creeds, innovations, and all kinds of opposition.

"Masonry has stood through the coming and going of ages; the mad prejudice of bigoted fanatics, and the rise and fall of empires and republics. That it exists today and is of such ancient origin proves clearly and conclusively that there is something in it far more precious than forms and ceremonies, and beautiful and well-sounding theories. To sustain this character, its votaries must be good men and true, true to ourselves, our families, our country, and to our Maker."

So spoke Grand Master Hezekiah A. Gudger almost exactly a hundred years ago. And it is almost as if he foresaw the dilemma in which his beloved fraternity would find itself a century following his word of caution. For today we do experience the attacks of bigoted fanatics; we do suffer the inattention, even the misbehavior, of many brethren; and we do rely too greatly upon the fame we inherit from the good works of our Masonic ancestors.

Just as it was in Brother Gudger's day, we of the present must truly be Masons in every word and action if Freemasonry is to stand and prosper. No amount of superficial doctoring will substitute for Masonic behavior.

Respectfully submitted,
REYNOLD S. DAVENPORT
Grand Historian

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF PUBLICATION THE NORTH CAROLINA MASON

(Docket No. 26)

The following report of the Board of Publication of the North Carolina Mason was received and entered on the record:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

The North Carolina Mason in 1991, the Board of Publication selected Ric

Carter as his successor. Completing his first full year as editor in 1992, Brother Carter has proven himself to be an excellent choice. The publication quality has improved both editorially and technically. Each bimonthly issue has been printed on time with a minimum of publishing problems. The reduced annual publication budget was met, with a few dollars left over.

It should be noted that this excellent performance was achieved while Brother Carter also served as Master of his lodge.

Computer technology is now used throughout the creation and composition of each issue in an effort to improve production efficiency and cost-effectiveness. Brother Carter employs word processing software to write the articles and store them on a floppy disk. The disk, together with photos for the issue, is sent to the Oxford Orphanage print shop for processing and printout; it eliminates any duplication of effort in creating camera-ready page layouts.

The Board convened in regular business meetings during the year. The following officers were elected:

Dalton, Mayo, Chairman

Carroll Simmons, Vice Chairman

James Stratton, Secretary

H. Lloyd Wilkerson chose to "retire" as Secretary after serving with distinction in that capacity for several years, but remains an active member of the Board. Reynold Davenport, the newest member of the Board, was named Editor Emeritus of The North Carolina Mason at the April, 1992, annual communication of the Grand Lodge.

The Board of Publication expresses its appreciation to all who have submitted news items and photos for publication. This interaction of the brethren in support of its editorial content assures that The North Carolina Mason will continue to be a valuable voice of Freemasonry in our state.

Respectfully submitted,
DALTON W. MAYO
Chairman

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON SUBORDINATE LODGE SPECIAL ACTIVITIES

(Docket No. 28)

The following report of the Committee on Subordinate Lodge Special Activities was received and entered on the record:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

The Subordinate Lodge Special Activities Committee is pleased to submit the following report of its activities for the Grand Lodge year 1992-93.

The committee had several questions during this past year regarding the number of days over which a project can be conducted. Regulation 95-48 states (in part), that a lodge desiring to conduct fund-raising activities for Masonic Charity may do so if the activity is one of the following, provided that the activity is conducted over a period of no more than three days. Based on its analysis of THE CODE, and consultation with some of those who helped author Regulation 95-48, the committee is of the opinion that THE CODE is defining the limitations of projects that can be done for Masonic Charities without prior approval. The committee feels that Regulation 95-48 is not saying that all projects cannot last more than three days, but that pre-approved projects cannot last more than three days. It is the committee's opinion that this was done in order to prevent careless infringement into the commercial domain, but to include enough flexibility to allow the committee to permit certain projects to operate in excess of three days, providing such projects did not infringe on commercial domain. The Subordinate Lodge Special Activities Committee consulted with the Internal Revenue Service, the North Carolina Department of Revenue, those who aided in writing Regulation 95-48, and the Grand Master in its analysis of this item.

Members of the committee have met (individually and collectively) with lodge representatives, with D.D.G.M.s, and in open lodge in an effort to help lodges better understand and appreciate the privileges extended to them in Regulation 95-48. The committee feels that there is an improved level of knowledge regarding Regulation 95-48, but that there is still a tremendous need for better understanding of it. To aid in this effort, the committee will continue to work with lodges in any way possible, to aid them to better understand and utilize Regulation 95-48. To do this it will be necessary for lodges to ask the committee for help.

There are lodges conducting projects that are permissible under THE CODE without approval, but for which the lodge must submit a financial statement within sixty (60) days after completion of said project. The committee is aware that there is a significant number of these lodges which are not submitting the required report. With the aid of the D.D.G.M.s the committee is going to expend additional effort to improve this matter.

The committee is also aware that there are still some lodges that are not conducting their fund raising projects in compliance with Reg. 95-48 and again with the help of the D.D.G.M.s, the committee will work on correcting this problem.

The committee has seen cases where the financial reports submitted by lodges after completion of a project include entries that are questionable expenses toward the project. In an effort to make and keep Masonry's record clean, the committee will be devoting an increased effort in the future toward such reports.

The committee sincerely hopes that in the future more lodges will make better use of the provisions of Regulation 95-48, and that in so doing will raise substantial extra money for our Masonic Charities. The committee is at the service to all of the subordinate lodges in the state in regards to their fund raising efforts.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MASONIC RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT

(Docket No. 29)

The following report of the Committee on Masonic Research and Development was received and entered on the record:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

The Grand Lodge Committee on Masonic Research and Development held six meetings this year: May 8, 1992 (Oxford), June 18, 1992, September 18, 1992, November 6, 1992, January 8, 1993 and April 19, 1993 (all in Raleigh). Several projects were discussed and assignments made. The major activity of the Committee for the year was the continuation of the Leadership Development Seminars to inform the craft. Four topics were chosen for presentation at sixteen locations across this Grand Jurisdiction. January 16th, 23rd, 30th and February 6th were selected as the dates for the Seminars. The four topics: "Budget/Financial Responsibility," "Leadership/Organization," "Grand Lodge/ Blue Lodge Relationship" and "Charity/Fund Raising" were carefully chosen and developed by different members of the Committee. One of our major concerns was the locations of the Seminars. The goal was to have a Seminar within fifty miles of every lodge in this Grand Jurisdiction. Participation proved we were on the right track. There were 981 Master Masons representing 267 Lodges in attendance. The Committee would like to thank the M.·.W.·.Grand Master, members of the Grand Line, the sixty-five D.D.G.M.s and D.D.G.L.s for their support and promotion. We would like, also, to thank the sixteen D.D.G.M.s who served as moderators, the sixteen lodges that made available their facilities and the sixty-one Brothers who made the eighty presentations in cities and towns ranging from Edenton and New Bern in the East to Franklin in the West.

The second major project was the development of a Speakers Bureau. This has been a slow and, at times, somewhat difficult task but the Committee is now ready to put names and subjects together with a goal of 1993 to publish and promote the Bureau.

Several other ideas and projects are being researched in the field of Orientation, Training, and Recognition.

Copies of the Minutes for all Committee meetings have been made available to the Grand Secretary's office and to C. James Weisel, Representative of the Committee to the Board of General Purposes.

COMMITTEE ON MASONIC PUBLIC RELATIONS

(Docket No. 30)

The following report of the Committee on Masonic Public Relations was received and entered on the record:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

The committee on Masonic Public Relations met periodically during the year and has continued its work in developing and implementing programs designed to make the public more aware of Freemasonry and its objectives.

Distribution of the brochure "The Real Secret of Freemasonry-Making Good Men Better" has continued. The demand for the brochures has been strong and its use is regarded as very effective in telling the story of our gentle craft. The original printing of 50,000 copies has been almost exhausted and recently 20,000 copies were reprinted with minor revisions. The brochures are available at the Grand Lodge office.

Several "Pilot Open House" programs were held and proved quite successful in acquainting Masters and Wardens with the procedure for hosting a public awareness night in their lodges. The Open House Program was printed in booklet form and mailed to Grand Lodge Officers, Past Grand Masters, District Deputy Grand Masters, District Deputy Grand Lecturers and subordinate lodges.

March 30, 1993 was designated by the committee as the date for all lodges to hold a public awareness night. Many lodges all across the state complied with this suggestion with the result that those members of the communities who attended came away with a better understanding of Freemasonry and its lofty purposes. This program is considered a great success and those lodges which have not done so are urged to host a "Public Awareness Night" in your lodge.

The beautiful story of Freemasonry needs to be conveyed in appropriate ways to the world at large. Your committee on Masonic Public Relations is dedicated and committed to that challenge.

REPORT OF THE GRAND MASTER'S COMMITTEE ON MASONIC YOUTH ORGANIZATIONS

(Docket No. 31)

The following report of the Grand Master's Committee on Youth Organizations was received and entered on the record and the portion pertaining to Finance was referred to the Committee on Finance:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

This past Masonic year, 1992-1993, was very exciting and upbeat for all of the Masonic Youth Organizations in our Grand Jurisdiction. All three groups, DeMolay, Rainbow, and Job's Daughters, were very busy, participating in numerous civic, religious, Masonic, and social activities individually, as well as collectively.

The North Carolina Association Order of DeMolay currently has seventeen active chapters, which include three new chapters in Fayetteville, Smithfield, and Wendell, and two reactivated chapters in Greensboro and Rowan County. There also have been numerous inquiries from many Masonic groups concerning the starting of new chapters in Asheville, Boone, Charlotte, Denton, Denver, Eden, Hayesville, Hickory, Kannapolis, Kings Mountain, Newton, Oxford, Pinehurst, Siler City, Sylva, Tryon, and Washington. Membership in North Carolina is still growing with eighty-six young men initiated in 1992, and twenty-one others receiving both degrees of DeMolay at the January 1993 Grand Master's Class, honoring Grand Master of Masons in North Carolina, Ray Norris, in Fayetteville. During this year, twenty-eight advisors were trained through the DeMolay Advisor Development (D.A.D.) Program in five seminars held throughout the state. Also this year, the DeMolay Youth Protection Program was fully implemented and presented to a majority of the Association's chapters, as well as to many Rainbows, Job's Daughters, and their adult advisors throughout the state. Events that North Carolina DeMolay participated in or sponsored included the 1992 Grand Master's Class in Charlotte and the 1993 Grand Master's Class in Fayetteville, Oxford Orphanage Visitation in February 1992 and 1993, Comradeship/Sports Weekend at Oxford in May, Friendship/Awards Day at Greensboro in July, Brotherhood/Ritual Day at Raleigh in October, and Masonic and Eastern Star Home Visitation in December. A leadership skills training session was held at Falls Lake/Raleigh in August. Sponsored by North Carolina DeMolay, the event was open to all Masonic youth and participation was outstanding for this first time activity. Several DeMolays and advisors attended many out of state events and activities, including the International Supreme Council Session in Detroit, Michigan, as well as meetings in New Mexico, Missouri, West Virginia, Virginia, Georgia, South Carolina, and Washington, D.C. Association chapters participated in many service activities during the year, both locally and on statewide level, highlighted by several cookouts and dances for the youth of Oxford Orphanage, as well as the presentation of a videocassette recorder and numerous tapes for entertainment to the Orphanage. One of these cookouts and dances was a joint venture of the State Master Councilor of DeMolay and the Grand Worthy Advisor of Rainbow in March 1993 and was quite successful.

The Order of Rainbow in North Carolina currently has twenty-six assemblies, which includes two new assemblies in Oxford and Smithfield. The Smithfield endeavor was in coordination with the new DeMolay chapter, and both were started at the same time. Rainbow membership is on the increase with 150 young women initiated during the year. Events that North Carolina Rainbow participated in or sponsored included Grand Assembly at Raleigh in June, a trip to a water park at Greensboro in July, and with DeMolay, jointly sponsoring a St. Patrick's Day cookout and dance at Oxford Orphanage in March. During the year, several Rainbows and advisors attended events and sessions in other Grand Jurisdictions. Local assemblies participated in many projects and activities during the year, which included service to family, church, community, and Masonic organizations. These assemblies also collectively sponsored seven educational scholarships for Rainbows attending college.

The Order of Job's Daughters in North Carolina currently has three bethels located in Raleigh, New Bern, and Jacksonville, and some growth in membership has been observed. Events that North Carolina Job's Daughters participate in or sponsor include their State Rally in May and their State Pageant in August. During the year, several Job's Daughters and their advisors attended events and sessions in other Supreme Jurisdictions. Local bethels participated in many projects and events during the year, which included fund raisers for the hearing impaired (H.I.K.E. Fund), as well as service to family, church, community, and Masonic organizations.

Collectively, all of the Masonic Youth Organizations in North Carolina have actively participated and supported each others events and activities, participated in Masonic and civic service projects, made visitations to Oxford Orphanage and the Masonic and Eastern Star Home, as well as attended and spoke at most major functions and meetings of the various Masonic organizations in North Carolina during this year. The support, encouragement, and leadership that Masonry and the appendant organizations provide is appreciated and it is hoped that your devotion to our Masonic youth will continue and abundantly grow.

The Grand Lodge Committee on Masonic Youth Organizations was formulated this year, and as a first year committee many ideas, goals, and projects were suggested, contemplated, and discussed. The Committee met in January 1993 in Fayetteville with Grand Master Ray Norris in attendance. The goals and projects suggested during the year were discussed and several areas were emphasized. These included the Masons becoming more involved and supportive of the Masonic Youth Organizations, both locally and at the Grand Lodge level. This support should be through sponsoring youth organizations, volunteering to be advisors, and funding to assist in establishing programs for our youth. Other projects discussed are set forth below:

1. Fund the DeMolay Youth Protection Program so that it may still be provided to new DeMolay chapters, as well as offered to Rainbows and Job's Daughters.
2. Prepare and enter a float in the St. John's Day Parade at Oxford in June. Riding on the float would be members and advisors from all the Masonic Youth Organizations, as well as children from the Orphanage.
3. Prepare and distribute a Masonic Youth Organizations' Directory to include local chapters, assemblies, and bethels, their meeting nights, times, and mailing addresses, as well as a list of advisors with telephone numbers for contact. The directory would be updated on an annual basis.
4. Develop and prepare a brochure depicting all Masonic Youth Organizations and stressing membership. The brochure would include an area for each organization's local or state contact person and their address and telephone number. Distribution would be statewide to all local Masonic organizations, as well as in other acceptable areas.

Prepared below is a formal request for presentation to the Grand Lodge Committee on Finance to appropriate additional funding for these projects.

REQUEST TO THE GRAND LODGE
COMMITTEE ON FINANCE

The Grand Lodge Committee on Masonic Youth Organizations respectfully requests monetary funding in the amount of $1,500.00 from the 1993-94 Grand Lodge budget to support those projects deemed by this Committee to further enhance and ensure the growth of our Masonic Youth Organizations in North Carolina. This monetary funding would be beyond that funding that is normally granted and annually afforded to the Order of DeMolay ($1,000.00) and the Order of Rainbow for Girls ($1,000.00).

CALLED FROM LABOR TO REFRESHMENT

The minutes were read by the Grand Secretary and approved. Prayer was offered by W.·.Brother Kenneth H. Sitton, Grand Chaplain, and the Grand Lodge was called from Labor to Refreshment until 1:30 p.m. on Tuesday, April 20, 1993, in Memorial Auditorium.

FIRST DAY—AFTERNOON SESSION

M.·.W.·.Brother Ray Norris, Grand Master, called the Grand Lodge meeting to order at 1:30 p.m. on Tuesday, April 20, 1993.

Brother E. John Elmore, State Executive Officer for DeMolay in North Carolina, introduced Colin Vance, State Master Councilor, Order of DeMolay, who delivered the following address:

Good afternoon, this is the first real speech I have had to make since becoming State Master Councilor, so forgive me if I sound a little nervous. I would like to start off by thanking Grand Master Norris, Deputy Grand Master Moore, and the other members of Grand Lodge for having me as their guest. Making public addresses is one of the few things of this office that I quite haven't gotten used to. Most of the time people want me to be quiet and here I am, asked to speak before this Grand Organization.

I never thought that, when I joined DeMolay, I would ever be speaking before a Lodge, let alone the Grand Lodge of North Carolina. For you see, I am not a native son of North Carolina. I was born and raised in Cavalier, North Dakota. I joined DeMolay in North Dakota three years ago and moved here a little over two years ago. But coming from North Dakota didn't matter to the members of N. C. DeMolay, all that mattered was that I was a DeMolay. My brothers in N. C. have made me feel like a welcome part of this association since the first event I went to. That is why I love being a member of the Masonic family. I know that I have brothers everywhere.

I am proud of my membership in DeMolay and it's association with Freemasonry. I am even prouder of the support we have received from Grand Lodge. You have helped us grow in the last year. With your help, two chapters have received their charters, three are on letters temporary, and several lodges have expressed interest in starting a chapter in their lodge. Your assistance has helped DeMolay grow stronger. More and more young men are being presented with the opportunity to join the organization which will make them better men. Even though DeMolay is an organization run by the members, the Masons provide wisdom and guidance to help the young men in DeMolay. I heard a story once about how a mother eagle will push the young eagle out of the nest when she feels it is time for the young eagle to fly. Before that young eagle can crash into the ground, the mother will catch it on her back and carry it back to the nest. Soon after which, she will push it over the edge again. They have been known to do this forty times with each young eagle. You are like the mother eagle, you push us over those little edges in life and catch us before we fall. You provide the role models that some young men don't have. My advisors have had a profound effect on my life. When I joined DeMolay, I was probably the worst son in the world. I was just about sixteen and I thought I knew everything. I fought with my parents all the time and I had little respect for them. But someone had some faith in me, she convinced me to fill out that petition and introduced me to the advisors of the local chapter. After joining, my advisors and the order itself showed me the error of my ways. I tried to be a better son. My advisors provided me with the role models for being a better son. They had a profound effect on my life just as you have had a profound effect on the young men in DeMolay in N. C.

Lastly, I would like to say that both you and your lodges will benefit from DeMolay. Before becoming a member of DeMolay, I knew little of masonry aside from vicious rumors spread about it being a cult by people who are ignorant of the true meaning of Freemasonry. DeMolay provided me with access to gaining knowledge of what Freemasonry was really about. I look forward to continuing me membership in the Masonic family after aging out of DeMolay.

Again thank you, Dad Norris and members of Grand Lodge for having me as your guest this afternoon.

CALLED FROM REFRESHMENT TO LABOR

The Grand Lodge was called from Refreshment to Labor at 2:00 P.M. on Tuesday, April 20, 1993, in Memorial Auditorium, Raleigh, North Carolina, by M.˙.W.˙.Brother Ray Norris, Grand Master. Prayer was offered by W.˙.Brother Kenneth H. Sitton, Grand Chaplain.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON NECROLOGY

(Docket No. 36)

The following report of the Committee on Necrology was presented by W.·.Brother David R. Grissom, Chairman, and was entered on the record:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

In the words of Isaiah he states:

"Fear thou not, for I am with thee;
Be not dismayed, for I am thy God;
I will strengthen thee: Yea, I will help thee:
Yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness.
For I, the Lord thy God, will hold thy right hand, saying unto thee, Fear Not; I will help thee."

As we gather on this special day and especially during this time of memorial, we are reminded of the words of Isaiah knowing our Great Architect still extends His hands to us and is willing to help us in all of our endeavors.

Our 1,522 brothers, whom we remember this day knew that a belief in God and that the immortality of the soul would give them a source of strength and comfort. And how wonderful to know that God extended His hands and welcomed them into the celestial home above.

We are grateful to have known these fine brethren and appreciate the meaningful contributions they made to Freemasonry. They will be missed by their families, brother Masons and friends but their memories will always be in our hearts and minds.

As we remember all of our brethren, we had two from among our Masonic family who were Past Grand Masters: Berl M. Kahn and E. Stansil Aldridge.

Past Grand Master I. Boyd Hopkins will give the eulogy for Past Grand Master Berl M. Kahn, followed by Past Grand Master Nathaniel C. Dean who will give the eulogy for Past Grand Master E. Stansil Aldridge.

BERL MAURICE KAHN
Grand Master 1972
Born: March 3, 1913 Died: March 15, 1993

BERL M. KAHN

On a Saturday afternoon, twenty-one years ago, my phone rang. I was surprised when I recognized the deep bass voice of then R.·.W.·.Brother Berl Kahn. I was even more surprised when he requested that I serve as his Grand Chaplain should he be elected Grand Master for the ensuing year.

"Brother Berl," I said, "don't you have a good rabbi who could serve as your Grand Chaplain?" His reply: "I want you as my Grand Chaplain." I honored his request.

I still recall that moment in my life as being the greatest affirmation of my personhood as man and minister and Mason. A soon-to-be Grand Master, he of the Jewish faith, wanted me, a minister of the Christian faith, as his Grand Chaplain.

That is the kind of man and Mason Brother Berl was. He practiced the Masonic philosophy that he so strongly believed and to which he was so very faithfully dedicated. He met "on the level" with all of us and with each of us. We were Brothers, and no religious creed would impede our love and friendship.

As I remember the life of Brother Berl, I remember a passage of Scripture in the Old Testament, Micah 6:8 (TEV), which reads,

The Lord has told us what is good.
What he requires of us is this:
to do what is good,
to show constant love,
and to live in humble fellowship with our God.

Brother Berl lived it well. He was fair, honest, and legitimate in his transactions with his fellowman, whether in business, in Masonry, or in other responsible dealings. He was fair in rendering decisions of Masonic concerns.

To love mercy, to show constant love, appeared easy and joyful for Brother Berl. He did not hesitate to give a Brother a big bear hug and say, "I love you." He was a genuine human being. His expressed love lent authenticity to his mature leadership.

Brother Berl knew in whom he believed, in whom he put his trust. He walked humbly with his God. He was a strong and stalwart leader, tempered with humility. In his concluding remarks, as Grand Master he said, "I assure you that any mistakes I have made were of the mind and not of the heart." That is how he was—sincere, but not stern.

Brother Berl was a man among men, a Mason among Masons, a tiger among tigers, yet gentle as a lamb. Long will he live in our hearts.

The heart of a friend never wanders or doubts,
No matter if years intervene;
The old faith is there, and naught can compare
With the comfort it gives, though unseen.
Yes, the heart of a friend is one thing I prize,
As life lengthens and twilight descends;
It's the last boon I'll ask, when I finish my task,
That I live in the hearts of my friends.

—Anonymous

Brother Berl lives in our hearts today; indeed, he does. In his memory we say, "Shalom, Most Worshipful Sir!"

He was Grand Representative of the District of Columbia near the Grand Lodge of North Carolina.

A member of Oasis Shrine Temple since 1958, Stan served as its ambassador to Stanly County for three years. He was Past President of Stanly County Shrine Club and was the first recipient of the "Stanly County Shriner of the year" award in 1964.

The Grand Master long supported the Order of Rainbow Girls, and was presented its Grand Cross of Color. He was a member and Past Patron of Albemarle Chapter No. 71 Order of the Eastern Star.

On March 22, 1993, God, in his infinite wisdom, saw fit to call Most Worshipful Brother Aldridge to his eternal reward and services were held from Stanly Gardens of Memory. While we today miss Brother Stan Aldridge and feel a keen sense of loss in his departure, we can look back and review the great contributions he made to life in general and especially our Masonic Fraternity, and we realize that the life of this man has not been lived in vain, that our lives have been made much richer because he lived and that we were privileged to associate with him, and the time he spent on this earth made the world much richer and a better place to live. It is hard for us to realize that he is gone and is no longer with us in our Fraternity of Freemasonry but we do realize that the contributions he made throughout his years as a Mason will continue to live in our beloved Fraternity until time shall be no more.

Thank you, Brother Hopkins and Brother Dean for your kind words and remarks.

Just as the hand of the Master of the lodge greeted us at the altar when we become Masons, so does the hand of God continue to help us now and always.

With this in mind, we know God has extended His hands and greeted our brethren who now live with Him forever and for this knowledge we are grateful.

In a poem by Rob Morris entitled "The Greatest of These" we are reminded of how important the hands of our brethren in the past and present really are:

The Greatest of These

The Word of God, the rule of faith to Masons true and free,
Sublimely says, "The greatest grace in man is Charity,"
To feel the sympathetic glow for souls in sorrow driven
And lend relief,—'tis this that brings the Mason nearest Heaven.

This broad-spread land, the Empire State, foremost in every art,
Hath lately shown in Charity the largest Mason heart;
A Brother from a distant land came empty to their door,
And lo, the generous Brotherhood threw open wide their store.

All honor, praise, respect to them, the noblest in the land,
And honor their Grand Master, right worthy of command;
And honor over all, to Him, the Sovereign King of Heaven,
Forever blest, who hearts to feel and hands to give, hath given.

Brother Grand Chaplain, please come and lead us in prayer.

MEMORIAL PRAYER

Our Father and our God, we lift up praise to you for being with those who have forged onward and journeyed upward due to thy divine plan of love and providence. We are still here following the footprints that lead us to Thee, the footprints of friends, Brothers, fellow strugglers, helpers, a fleeting yet indelible memory of those who attack your path before us.

Never again on this perishing frame of life shall these beloved Brothers grasp our fraternal ritual and palm and thus we treasure their passing with these moments of humble remembrance. Those "beloved dead" as president Lincoln called them, though preceding us, "to that far distant country, whence no traveler returns," calls to mind the need for us to leave our mark as well.

Supreme Master, inspire us with the actions of men who met on the plumb and parted on the square and though changed, are still traveling upon the level of time. Make us ever aware that our time is brief, our calling is high, and men, and Brothers, and families still need the assistance of our "kind offices." We lift up these wounded families where this deficit is most keenly understood, and beg a higher consciousness on our part to meet the needs left in our faithful keeping by these honored dead.

Grant unto us that never perishable portal of hope; that when we depart this earthly dust we may inherit thy eternal perspective world without end.

Thank you, Lord, for the rule and guide of faith that can heal us in these times of loss. Its comfort and constant hope reveals a volume of unfathomed, unexpendable and inexhaustible wisdom. Page upon page fills and radiates, concentrates, and permeates us with your presence, instructions, and promises even when "we walk through the valley of the shadow." We lay claim to its pure and perfect precepts mostly unread, unreached, untouched, but guaranteed to those who would abide by its humbling truths. Turn our hearts toward the homeland of the soul found as we did in the treasure chest of your words. Illuminate our minds with thy light that we may see thy presence in the accomplished examples of those faithful who have gone ahead.

Loving father, we would briefly grieve the loss of these 1,517 departed Brethren, but are more swiftly reminded that they left working tools behind, yet these very instruments fashioned their lives for a more perfect quarry. Therefore, we plead your presence upon their good intentions and our actions as we the living continue to labor in our quarry of life until one day, we join their ranks and receive thy personal commendation. "Well done, well done, well done!"

Respectfully submitted,
DAVID R. GRISSON, Chairman
Committee on Necrology

REPORT OF THE GRAND MASTER

(Docket No. 37)

Most Worshipful Brother Ray Norris, Grand Master of Masons in North Carolina, delivered the following report, which was referred to the Board of General Purposes (See Page 131, Docket No. 38 of these Proceedings for distribution of this report.)

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

My Brethren:

Another Masonic year is about to end, and our contributions this year to generations yet to come will be measured by our children and grandchildren. It has been a most enjoyable year, and I am very grateful and honored for the opportunity to serve you and our great Fraternity of Freemasonry. The future is bright, but many challenges are awaiting us.

It is indeed an honor and privilege to welcome each of you to the Two-Hundred and Sixth Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge of Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons of North Carolina. It is my desire that you are comfortable and feel at ease as you discharge your responsibilities in behalf of the 65,000 Masons in this Grand Jurisdiction. We want you to take an active part in our deliberations. We are hopeful you will depart tomorrow with a sentiment and attitude of joy for a job well done and with a desire to communicate to the craft your positive accomplishments.

We are honored with the presence of many distinguished guests from other Grand Jurisdictions and from Appendant Bodies in North Carolina. We thank you for your presence, and we extend warm fraternal greetings to each of you. It is our wish that your stay be very gratifying and memorable. It is our hope that you return to your home with a feeling that it was good to have been with us and that Freemasonry has been enhanced.

NECROLOGY

During this Masonic year, the Supreme Architect of the Universe has seen fit to terminate the labors of 1,522 brethren of this Grand Jurisdiction. I am saddened to report that two of our Past Grand Masters are included in this number. They are Most Worshipful Brother Berl M. Kahn, and Most Worshipful E. Stansil Aldridge.

The loss is great; however, these brethren have served the craft well and future generations will enjoy their many contributions. We are much richer today because of their service to Freemasonry and mankind.

The Committee of Necrology has conducted a Memorial Service in memory of our departed brothers during this Annual Communication.

DISTRICT DEPUTY MEETING

It was good to meet with the District Deputy Grand Masters and the District Deputy Grand Lecturers at a dinner meeting at the Radisson Hotel on Tuesday evening during the 1992 Annual Communication. After dinner, I presented my program to the District Deputy Grand Masters. My opening statement was "I need your help." The Grand Master's representatives responded in an excellent manner by presenting the program to the 391 lodges in the 65 Masonic Districts. I am indeed grateful for their support and dedication in sharing the challenges with the craft. My observations, along with many positive reports I have received, have confirmed the devotion and excellent leadership demonstrated to the membership in their respective district. District Deputy Grand Masters and District Deputy Grand Lecturers, I thank you for your constant support and the long and sometime difficult hours spent in discharging your responsibilities and obligations.

DISTRICT MEETINGS

It was a pleasure and a joy to present to the craft a very aggressive and challenging program, "BUILDERS OF THE FUTURE," in each of the sixty-five Masonic Districts, beginning in the 33rd District, hosted by Henry F. Grainger Lodge No. 412 at Oxford, North Carolina, May 7, 1992, and completing the presentations November 16, 1992 in the 3rd Masonic District, hosted by Ocracoke Lodge No. 747, Ocracoke, North Carolina.

The meetings were well attended, and the aggressive and challenging program was enthusiastically received. I asked the brothers present to share their experiences with those who were unable to be present, which I believe they did. The "BUILDERS OF THE FUTURE" presentation included the following challenges:

1. Excellence in Leadership
2. Educate and Inform Candidates
3. Special Planned Programs and Community Projects
4. Financial Responsibility (Masonic Charities)

Great credit for the success of the program goes to the District Deputy Grand Masters, District Deputy Grand Lecturers and the Masters of the Three-hundred and ninety-one Symbolic Lodges in this Grand Jurisdiction. Hopefully, we will not forget our responsibilities and obligations as Master Masons.

The preparation and arrangements for each meeting was super, beginning with very warm welcomes and delicious dinners, well prepared, and beautiful table arrangements. We experienced an atmosphere of great fellowship and brotherly love. I thank everyone responsible for making our visits so enjoyable.

We were blessed with very good attendance of Past Grand Masters and Grand Lodge Officers at many of the meetings. Their presence was welcomed and very much appreciated by the craft. I was indeed honored and very pleased.

The Superintendents of the Oxford Orphanage and the Masonic and Eastern Star Home held joint Area Meetings separate and independent of the Grand Master's district meetings. The professional slide program presented was outstanding and demonstrated a personal visit of the Home and the Orphanage and should be seen by the total membership. The Superintendents did a beautiful job in putting together and presenting the program. The schedule was promoted very well, but the attendance was disappointing.

Right Worshipful Robert P. Dudley, Grand Secretary, reviewed the proposed Amendments to The Code that will be presented at this Grand Lodge and other matters of interest from the Grand Secretary's Office. The Assistant to the Grand Secretary, Worshipful Walton Clapp; made the same presentation at a number of the meetings. They communicated to the craft in an outstanding manner and were very supportive of the district meetings. The brethren were very appreciative of their presence and the valuable information they made available for the benefit of Freemasonry.

BOARD OF CUSTODIANS

I must give a vote of thanks for the great service the members of the Board of Custodians have given to Freemasonry in this Grand Jurisdiction. We have experienced excellent ritualistic work second to none, which is absolute in maintaining the high quality of a Master Mason. The Board's dedication and professional assistance to the 508 Certified Lecturers are gratifying and ensure the ritual of Freemasonry in North Carolina will always be our number one priority. My brothers, I thank each of the board members for their extraordinary service that is being rendered for future generations.

COMMITTEE ON MASONIC RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT

After months of extremely hard work in preparation (planning, research, developing and promoting), the Committee on Masonic Research and Development conducted sixteen excellent and informative area seminars on four Saturdays in January and February, 1993. The subjects presented and discussed were:

1. Budget/Financial Responsibility
2. Leadership
3. Grand Lodge/Blue Lodge Relationship
4. Charity/Fund Raising
5. Grand Lodge Business
   (1) North Carolina Masonic Development Program
   (2) Resolution to Revise The Code
   (3) Proposed Amendments to The Code

These subjects were presented in a very professional manner by carefully selected speakers throughout the state. The participation of the craft was exceptional and is much better informed of their responsibilities and obligations to each other and Freemasonry. The comments from those in attendance have been very encouraging, and the committee is to be commended for a challenge well done. I congratulate you and thank you for your superior works and furtherance of Masonic knowledge in this Grand Jurisdiction. You are master workmen.

YOUTH ORGANIZATIONS

I had the opportunity and privilege to spend two days with our young people at the North Carolina State Association Order of DeMolay Annual Grand Master's Class in Fayetteville, North Carolina. The experience was very enjoyable, but more importantly, I observed the finest young people, members of DeMolay for boys and Rainbow and Job's Daughters for girls, at work exemplifying the principle tenets of Freemasonry. These young men and women are superb potential leaders of tomorrow in our communities, state and nation.

The outstanding work performed by the Grand Lodge Committee on Masonic Youth Organizations, Brother E. John Elmore, Executive Officer to North Carolina; Colin E. Vance, State Master Councilor; the Officers and members of the local Chapters, deserve our praise and thanks. Because of their outstanding dedication to our youth and the challenges of the future, the immediate growth in membership and Chapters is very encouraging. Two Chapters have been started this year, and no doubt, others are in the making.

Our goal should continue to be at least one DeMolay Chapter in each Masonic District in North Carolina. In fact, the Order of DeMolay in North Carolina has set this goal for 1993. The young lady organizations will follow. Brethren, I urge you to go to work as we "Build for the Future."

JOSEPH MONTFORT MEDALS

It is indeed an honor and privilege for this Grand Master to recognize three deserving brothers who have rendered distinguished Masonic service or achievement by presenting to them the Joseph Montfort Medal. It was a pleasure to present the first of these awards to Worshipful Brother E. Paul Martin, May 16, 1992, at a special dinner meeting, attended by many brothers and friends, some traveling great distances, in honor of his sixty-nine (69) years of distinguished Masonic service to Freemasonry throughout this Grand Jurisdiction. Brother Paul is a member and Past Master of Waynesville Lodge No. 259 and Past District Deputy Grand Master. He has served the York Rite Bodies of Waynesville with distinction for many years, having rendered dedicated service in many capacities, including Excellent High Priest, Illustrious Grand Master of Royal and Select Masters, Grand York Rite of North Carolina. He is a cornerstone of the Annual York Rite Summer Assembly in Waynesville, North Carolina. He was Coroneted an Inspector General Honorary 33rd Degree of Ancient Free and Accepted Masons, Southern Jurisdiction Scottish Rite of Freemasonry, USA, in 1967. He has received numerous awards and decorations for the many contributions he has made to Freemasonry for our enjoyment and future generations. He is a true "Builder of the Future."

I will present two additional Joseph Montfort Medals to worthy and deserving brothers during this Annual Communication.

I recommend that the Honorary title of past District Deputy Grand Master be granted to the following brethren, each of whom is both qualified and eligible under the provisions of Regulation 12-05 of The Code.

OXFORD ORPHANAGE

Our home for children at Oxford, North Carolina is in excellent condition and is well managed by its Superintendent, Reverend and Brother David Grissom, and his professional staff. It has been a special privilege and a distinct pleasure to work with these good people and be a servant for the children. Our children are special, and it is very rewarding to be with them and observe their growth. They are very appreciative and love each Mason in North Carolina.

We are providing home services and training to about 150 children. Our facilities would accommodate another 100 with little cost increase. No doubt each community has one or more children who need our help. Let me urge each Mason to give some consideration of child need in their respective communities and share your thoughts and feelings with your lodge Oxford Orphanage Committee.

St. John's Day was another huge success with approximately 15,000 Masons, family and friends observing and enjoying a fun-filled day that included a three Temple Shrine parade, plenty of food, campus visits and professional entertainment. This is an annual celebration, and every Master Mason owes it to himself to be a part of the largest Masonic event in North Carolina. Special recognition and gratitude is extended to everyone who made the beautiful day a great success, especially Brother Lloyd Young and his committee who work twelve months each year in preparation and the Nobles and brothers of AMRAN, OASIS and SUDAN Temples for their great and unselfish contribution for the children of Oxford Orphanage and Freemasonry. My brethren, I thank you and the children thank you also. Those children who rode in the cars in the parade are very appreciative, and I am sure that Brother Grissom will have a challenge this year of selecting youngsters to participate in the largest and best parade in North Carolina.

At the dinner preceding the 12th Masonic District Meeting at Rehoboth Lodge No. 279 in Rose Hill, North Carolina, it was my honor and privilege to present several beautiful framed certificates of appreciation to companies and individuals who have actively and substantially supported St. John's Day at Oxford Orphanage, on behalf of the children and the Masons in this Grand Jurisdiction. The certificates and frames were professionally prepared by the Orphanage. The recipients were much surprised and very appreciative of the positive recognition afforded them.

The several committees have worked very hard this year in bringing about improvements on campus. The beauty of the grounds and physical condition of the facilities are or will be completed within a few weeks at their best. The Long Range Planning Committee continues to research the challenges of this day looking towards the future for the children and Freemasonry in this Grand Jurisdiction. The Personnel and Policies Committee has brought about improvements in the operation of the Orphanage and the Child Care System. All have worked in unity and harmony through the Board of Directors in debates and consideration of preparing for the children in years to come. I am confident that the oldest and best Child Care Home will continue to grow and meet the demands of the future. Brethren, I am proud of Oxford Orphanage, and I am sure you feel and share the same sentiments.

I do have a concern of our support of the Operating Cost of Oxford Orphanage. The Superintendent, his staff and the Board of Directors continue to review and reduce Operating Expense wherever possible, and I can promise you, this action will continue. However, to meet the financial needs presently and for the future, we must increase our contributions. Each Master Mason should give serious consideration of his support to Oxford Orphanage.

Because of the financial need, the Board of Directors approved a resolution in support of a professional fund raising program, "Masonic Development Program." This resolution was sent to each lodge and will be presented at this Annual Communication for your approval.

It has been a joy and a very rewarding experience in working with the Superintendent, his staff, the Board of Directors and, yes, the Craft—the backbone of the Orphanage. I applaud each of you and thank you for a very fruitful year. Each of you are "Builders of the Future" for our children.

MASONIC AND EASTERN STAR HOME

Under the leadership of Brother Tommy L. Jones, Superintendent of the Masonic and Eastern Star Home, we have experienced another good year. The physical conditions of the Home are very good, and the services and care of the residents are excellent. Brother Tommy and his staff deserve our thanks and appreciation for an outstanding accomplishment. I salute you.

There are many challenges that cause great concern. The waiting list continues to be over 100, and no doubt, many other brothers and sisters in this Grand Jurisdiction need our help and assistance now. The facilities are restricted to about 200 residents. Our contributions for the Operating Expense of the Home is very small. The total Masonic donation for 1992 was less than $10.00 per Master Mason. The Care Center Project is short about $800,000.00 of its goal of $2,000,000.00. We have work to do.

Considerable attention has been directed towards cost reductions and improving the care of our residents. The Personnel and Policy Committee and Long Range Planning Committee have researched and studied the needs and asserted intense considerations for the future of the Home and quality of care for the residents and the impact to Freemasonry in North Carolina. Although they have not concluded their analysis, we do believe that a comprehensive recommendation is forthcoming in a few months. This action will be very helpful in our maintaining the best health care for our senior citizens.

The gifts to the Home must improve. Because of this enormous need, the Board of Directors approved a resolution in support of a Masonic Development Program (professional fund raising) and sent copies to each lodge in this Grand Jurisdiction. The resolution will be presented at this Grand Lodge Communication for your approval.

It has been a very rewarding experience to serve with the Superintendent, his talented staff, the Board of Directors and various committees. I am pleased with the professionalism, dedication and vibrant spirit of everyone involved, including the unity and cooperation of the Grand Chapter Order of the Eastern Star. Brotherly love, truth and harmony excelled in their dedication and accomplishments for which I am filled with heartfelt gratitude.

THE NORTH CAROLINA MASONIC FOUNDATION

This living memorial, the North Carolina Masonic Foundation, continues to grow, but slowly, and its earnings are very helpful to the Masonic and Eastern Star Home and Oxford Orphanage in support of their Operating Expenses. 1992 income from the Foundation contributed $62,500.00 to the Orphanage and $236,885.72 to the Masonic and Eastern Star Home. The greater distribution was directed to the Home because of a more pressing need. The Foundation's value was increased during 1992 by $75,746.30 contributed by the craft and $306,800.75 realized through the investments of the funds. The Foundation Board of Directors is to be commended for the outstanding work they continue to accomplish in improving the assets of the Foundation. The Foundation's total value is now $6,577,569.08, still short of the $10,000,000.00 goal set twelve years ago. I thank everyone for their contributions and support of this living memorial. Let me urge each Master Mason in North Carolina to continue to make annual contributions to the fund and promote wills and bequests. We should be thinking about a forty or fifty million dollar foundation to support our charities.

THE NORTH CAROLINA MASON

The North Carolina Mason is the one instrument which extends the opportunity to share and communicate to the Craft in North Carolina. It is news worthy, and it is very educational in communicating greater knowledge and understanding in the Fraternity of Freemasonry. It is my hope that it is read and studied by each Mason in our Grand Jurisdiction. Why not share it with a non-Mason?

Through the efforts and hard work of the Board of Publication of the North Carolina Mason, Brother Ric Carter, Editor, and the staff of the Printing Department of Oxford Orphanage, we continue to notice improvements in the quality of the bi-monthly publication. My brothers, thank you for a job well done, and I am sure the Craft thanks you, also.

COMMITTEE ON CODE REVISIONS

This committee has been enlarged to broaden the representation of this Grand Jurisdiction. The committee consists of William L. Mills, III, PM (32); G. Dick Pierce (244); C. James Weisel, PM (32); Clifton W. Everett, Jr., PM, Junior Grand Warden (708); and Forrest F. Ball, PM, CL (293).

A revision of The Code eliminating the many ambiguities would be very meaningful to the Craft, and particularly to the Masters of our lodges. To accomplish this, it becomes necessary that the voting delegates at Grand Lodge approve a resolution permitting such action. Then the committee can proceed with the assigned task. I urge Grand Lodge approval.

COMMITTEE ON MASONIC PUBLIC RELATIONS

Because of the dedication and prudent foresight of the members of this committee, the story of Freemasonry has been presented to greater numbers of non-Masons than ever before in this Grand Jurisdiction.

In addition to the distribution of the informative and professional brochure, "The Real Secret of Freemasonry—Making Good Men Better," the Open House Program has been received and presented with excellent results.

Throughout the state, I have received many super comments, words, pictures and video tapes. The program has the attention and interest of many lodges and districts and, without question, will now become an annual event. The state wide program, scheduled for March 30, 1993, has experienced a rousing applause. I thank the members of this committee and all participants in "Building for the Future."

SOUTHEASTERN MASONIC CONFERENCE

The Grand Lodge of North Carolina can be proud of hosting the Southeastern Masonic Conference in Asheville, North Carolina, August 6, 7 and 8, 1992. Many complimentary statements were voiced from other Grand Jurisdictions, including "this was the best." I am convinced that the high quality of the total program established a degree of excellence that future sessions will strive to achieve. It was three days filled with brotherly love and friendship, enjoyment and yes, presentations of outstanding papers which challenged all minds in our efforts to be true "Builders of the Future."

The superiority of the conference was set by Most Worshipful I. Boyd Hopkins, PGM, who delivered the keynote address, "Hiram Abif Lives." John J. Robinson, author of the book, "Born in Blood," concluded the session with a brilliant oratory, "Future of Freemasonry." Between these superb and professional presentations were papers presented second to none. The subjects and presenters were:

Financial Responsibility ..... Thomas E. Hager, SGW of Tennessee

Masonry and Religion ..... David R. Grissom, Supt., Oxford Orphanage

Ethnic Involvement ..... John R. Thomas, JGW of Florida

Community Involvement ..... Richard G. Moore, DGM of North Carolina

Philanthropy ..... William G. Hinton, GM of Kentucky

Ritual ..... William B. Brunk, SGW of North Carolina

Communications ..... William D. Longshore, GM, of South. Carolina

Dignity and Decorum in Masonry Clifton W. Everett, JGW of North Carolina

Credit for the superior results of the conference must be extended to the local committee under the leadership of Brother R. Phillips Presley, General Chairman, Norburn C. Hyatt, PGM, Master of Ceremonies, and the Grand Lodge staff and Grand Lodge Officers for a job well done. You were super, and I thank you.

I am indeed grateful and appreciative of the tremendous support and participation of the many brothers and ladies that contributed to the excellent conference. I thank each of you for a memorable event which I shall always treasure. Freemasonry is the beneficiary.

I recommend we continue our membership and support of the Southeastern Masonic Conference.

CONFERENCE OF GRAND MASTERS OF MASONS IN NORTH AMERICA

We were privileged to travel to Hot Springs, Arkansas and participate in the Conference of Grand Masters of Masons in North America, February 21, 22 and 23, 1993. It was good to share experiences and discuss challenges with representatives from over 65 Grand Jurisdictions.

The theme of the conference was "Planning for the Future." The meetings were extremely informative and challenging as we dream and prepare for the future. Grand Lodges are being constituted in a number of countries that have been under communism and dictatorship for many years. It is heartwarming to hear of the many recent experiences of brothers being able to once more enjoy the freedoms of brotherly love, relief and truth.

The Grand Lodge of North Carolina was well recognized and honored by:

1. Right Worshipful Richard G. Moore, Deputy Grand Master, elected to serve on the Time and Place Committee.

2. Your Grand Master was elected to chair the Seventy-fourth Annual Meeting of the Masonic Service Association of the United States.

3. Right Worshipful Robert P. Dudley, Grand Secretary, elected President of the Grand Secretaries Conference of North America for the ensuing year.

The Conference of Grand Masters of Masons in North America is important, and we should continue to support and participate in its deliberations and sharing of ideas and experiences as we "Build for the Future."

North Carolina was well represented, and we returned with a greater insight and more confident of the future and contributions of Freemasonry to mankind. Those in attendance were:

Most Worshipful Ray Norris, Grand Master, and his wife, Jean

Right Worshipful Richard G. Moore, Deputy Grand Master

Right Worshipful Clifton W. Everett, Jr., Junior Grand Warden

Most Worshipful Jerry G. Tart, PGM, Grand Treasurer, and his wife, Zee

Right Worshipful Robert P. Dudley, Grand Secretary, and his wife, Doris

Most Worshipful James W. Brewer, Past Grand Master, Past Grand Treasurer

Illustrious and Worshipful H. Lloyd Wilkerson, S.G.I.G. in North Carolina, Grand Prior, Acting Lt. Grand Commander, The Supreme Council of Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry, Southern Jurisdiction, USA, and his wife, Jean.

EMERGENT COMMUNICATIONS

It was indeed an honor and privilege to call seven Emergent Communications of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina this Masonic year. Three were for the purpose of Laying Cornerstones of New Temples and four for the purpose of dedicating beautiful Temples. These Emergent Communications were as follows:

VETERANS ADMINISTRATION HOSPITAL VISITATION

It was heartwarming to visit the four V.A. Hospitals in North Carolina and converse with our brothers who have served these United States of America in time of need to protect and maintain the liberties and freedoms we enjoy. It is an experience I shall never forget. The visits were made as follows:

Date	Hospital	Location
May 20, 1992	V.A.	Fayetteville
August 5, 1992	V.A.	Oteen
August 19, 1992	V.A.	Salisbury
August 28, 1992	V.A.	Durham

The Hospital Directors extended a very cordial welcome, and the Masonic Service Association Representatives were very helpful in coordinating my visits. I am indeed grateful for their attention and assistance. I applaud these brothers for the dedicated service to our brother Masons who have served our country and Freemasonry so well.

OUT OF STATE VISITATIONS

In addition to attending the Grand Master's of Masons Conference at Hot Springs, Arkansas, my wife and I have enjoyed and will always treasure the many experiences and friendships developed during the following out of state visits:

June 9-11, 275th Anniversary Celebration of the United Grand Lodge of England at London. Right Worshipful Richard G. Moore, Deputy Grand Master, and his wife and Right Worshipful Robert P. Dudley, Grand Secretary and his wife were in attendance. Also, this was an exciting and a very memorable occasion that we shall treasure the rest of our lives. The pomp and circumstance was beyond description. The many Masonic families we met and became close friends are from many countries around the world and a gift one can only realize once in a lifetime. Yes, we are elated, and to witness Freemasonry at work on such a broad scope, makes one better comprehend the universality of our great Fraternity. We were welcomed in a most cordial manner and received every kind courtesy that could be extended to six people from North Carolina, one of the Original Thirteen Colonies. We are indeed grateful and thank the Board of General Purposes for making this most enjoyable and memorable venture a reality. We shall not forget.

June 12, visited the Rickmansworth Masonic School at Rickmansworth, England. This quality school for girls is very impressive.

June 30-July 3, the 118th Annual Session of the Imperial Council of the Shrine of North America was held at Orlando, Florida, and Jean and I are most grateful and appreciative of the three Shrine Temples, AMRAN, OASIS and SUDAN, hosting the enjoyable trip, and the many courtesies extended to us at the session and while in Orlando.

October 6-8, the 187th Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge of Ancient Free and Accepted Masons of Delaware at Wilmington.

October 15-16, the 183rd Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Ohio at Columbus.

October 19-20, the 193rd Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Kentucky at Louisville.

October 26-28, the 206th Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Georgia at Macon.

A number of other invitations were received from other Grand Jurisdictions and were humbly declined with regrets because of commitments and priorities within the Grand Jurisdiction of North Carolina.

I highly recommend visitation to other Grand Jurisdictions as we build for the future.

I wish to commend each of them for the prompt and efficient manner in which they handled these investigations. Based upon the reports and recommendations received, I approved the waiver of physical disability for 19 petitioners. Unfortunately, it was necessary to deny the waiver in one instance.

Whereas, I am in receipt of a copy of District Deputy Grand Lecturer Gerald F. Lee's letter to you dated April 24, 1992, concerning the enforcement of Regulation 79-09, and

ORDER NO. 5

BASED ON THE FOREGOING FINDINGS OF FACTS AND PROVISIONS OF THE CODE, AS GRAND MASTER OF THE GRAND LODGE OF NORTH CAROLINA, I MAKE THE FOLLOWING CONCLUSIONS.

1. The condition of the finances of XXX Lodge No. XX is well known to its members but the lodge has undertaken no action legal under The Code to improve its finances.

2. In dealing with its finances XXX Lodge No. XX has during all of 1992 and for an undetermined number of years in the past actively attempted to circumvent The Code, the Grand Master, and the Grand Lodge.

3. XXX Lodge No. XX intentionally failed and refused to set and collect annual dues from its membership at a level necessary to enable it to maintain itself and discharge all of its duties and obligations as required even though the level discussed in the lodge on June 4, 1992; to wit: sixty dollars ($60.00) per year, is maintained by other subordinate lodges in this Grand Jurisdiction.

4. XXX Lodge No. XX intentionally failed and refused to collect dues actually due it from its members by improperly exempting a class of its members from the payment of dues.

5. XXX Lodge No. XX has surrendered control of its property to an ad hoc committee of self appointed members of the lodge and XXX Chapter No. XX of the Order of the Eastern Star.

6. The reliance of XXX Lodge No. XX on fund raising from the public and "voluntary contributions": of its members and the Order of the Eastern Star for its necessary maintenance and support and its surrender of control of its property are both departures from the generally recognized usages of the Craft and the original plan of Masonry.

7. XXX Lodge No. XX intentionally failed and refused to recognize the lawful authority of the authorized officers and agents of the Grand Lodge and obey their lawful orders.

8. XXX Lodge No. XX has neglected, failed and refused to discipline conduct and statements of its members in open lodge unworthy of Masons, openly hostile to and subversive of The Code and the Grand Lodge, and contrary to our most solemn obligation.

9. XXX Lodge No. XX has pledged its credit and entered into building projects with XXX Chapter No. XX of the Order of the Eastern Star without seeking or obtaining approval of the Lodge Service Commission or the Grand Lodge.

10. XXX Lodge No. XX conducted in 1992 at least two fund raising activities for its own benefit without seeking or obtaining approval of the Committee on Subordinate Lodge Special Activities or the Grand Lodge and has refused requests for and denied the existence of information in its possession and control concerning these activities.

11. Each of the conclusions set forth in conclusions 1 through 10 is sufficient by itself to require discipline of the lodge and taken together overwhelmingly justify arrest and revocation of its charter.

12. The officers and numerous individual members of XXX Lodge No. XX are responsible for the condition of the lodge.

13. The offenses of XXX Lodge No. XX are so numerous and serious that its charter should be revoked.

14. If I, as Grand Master, relied solely on the active participation of the members as reflected in the minutes of XXX Lodge for 1992, I would have no choice but to arrest its charter and recommend to the Grand Lodge that the same be revoked.

15. The members of XXX Lodge No. XX that have been active during 1992 and are not subject to individual discipline by the Order of the Grand Master issued on November 25, 1992, as modified hereby, with the support of the members who participated in the stated communication on December 3, 1992 and the hearing on December 14, 1992 may be sufficient to rehabilitate and heal the lodge.

16. The fact that new officers were elected on December 3, 1992, and that the membership present at this hearing is some evidence that there may be more active participation in the lodge affairs by the membership as a whole in the year 1993 but whether or not that evidence is sufficient to withstand the overwhelming reasons to arrest the charter is a matter that weighs heavy on my mind as Grand Master.

17. As Grand Master, I must act on what is best for Masonry in this lodge and within the jurisdiction of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina.

18. No one, not I or any other officer of Grand Lodge of North Carolina, want or desire that the charter of XXX Lodge be arrested or revoked.

19. All informed brethren acknowledge that something must be done regarding the situation at XXX Lodge.

ORDER

Now, therefore, based upon the foregoing findings of fact, provisions of The Code, and conclusions, I, as Grand Master of Masons in North Carolina, do hereby make the following order:

1. Although there is sufficient grounds to arrest the Charter of XXX Lodge No. XX as herein set forth, it is ordered that the decision to arrest or revoke said charter be held in abeyance until Saturday, March 13, 1993, at 1:00 P.M., at which time the officers and members of XXX Lodge No. XX will appear before me, as Grand Master, at the Grand Lodge Building, 2921 Glenwood Avenue, Raleigh, North Carolina, to show cause why said charter should not be arrested.

Note: (Due to the snow storm on March 13, 1992, the above meeting was not held. The Grand Master re-scheduled the meeting for March 19, 1993, at 7:00 P.M. in the Hall of XXX Lodge No. XX.)

2. That pending said show cause hearing in Raleigh, North Carolina, the officers and members of XXX Lodge No. XX are hereby authorized and directed to do the following:

(a) Install the officers duly elected and appointed.

(b) Appoint the appropriate committees recognized by the by-laws of the lodge and The Code.

(c) Insure that each candidate that is elected, initiated, passed, or raised in XXX Lodge No. XX is properly instructed in Masonry by the use of The Lodge System of Masonic Education published by the Grand Lodge of Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons of North Carolina. Any candidate that has not been so instructed as herein provided shall not be advanced by XXX Lodge to the next degree until he has been properly instructed on all subject matters set forth in The Lodge System of Masonic Education prior to the next scheduled degree.

3. That pending said show cause hearing, the officers and membership of XXX Lodge XX should take any and all appropriate action to eliminate the problems leading to this show cause hearing, and in particular, XXX Lodge should:

(a) Review the financial condition of the lodge and take appropriate action as to dues.

(b) Review the financial records of the lodge and make a full accounting of all lodge funds received by any one for the past twelve (12) years as well as expenditures.

(c) Take steps to insure that only the Secretary and Treasurer have control of the funds of the lodge for any length of time and especially the accounts.

(d) Take steps to insure that the lodge is rented, if rented, to appropriate parties that would not bring discredit on Masonry and in doing so seek the advice and approval of the Grand Lodge Service Commission even if the term of any lease is less than five years. Any rental of the lodge is to be by vote of the lodge and reduced to writing between the parties involved.

(e) Take steps to insure that the Grand Lodge Committee on Subordinate Lodge Activities is advised of all fund raising activities of the lodge and make due application to said committee when applicable.

RECOMMENDATIONS

I recommend that we continue our usual support and appropriations for Oxford Orphanage, the Masonic and Eastern Star Home, The Masonic Service Association, the George Washington Masonic National Memorial Association, The Conference of Grand Masters of Masons of North America, The Southeastern Masonic Conference and The Conference of Grand Secretaries of Grand Lodges of North America.

I recommend that we increase our appropriation and support of our Youth Organizations, namely, The Order of DeMolay, The Order of the Rainbow for Girls and Job's Daughters. I further recommend that greater effort be made to organize at least one (1) DeMolay Chapter in each Masonic District.

I recommend very strongly the approval and implementation of the Masonic Development Program. The survival of our Masonic Charities may well be determined by the results of the program. The Craft will be better informed, also. I do believe the program is a must.

There is strong evidence that the question of Civil Rights Compliance and Licensing by the appropriate government departments pertaining to Oxford Orphanage is present and now requires our profound study, research and direction. The Long Range Planning Committee of Oxford Orphanage is at work and will need the support and assistance of the Craft. Therefore, I recommend that this challenge be given intense study and consideration and that the Craft be continuously informed and their inputs given proper consideration. I further recommend, after the complete and thorough study and recommendations of the Lodge Range Planning Committee of Oxford Orphanage have been presented, that the Board of Directors of Oxford Orphanage be authorized to proceed with proper actions that are in the best interest of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina and particularly Oxford Orphanage.

The Personnel and Policy and The Long Range Planning Committees of the Masonic and Eastern Star Home are making comprehensive study of the needs of our residents and senior citizens and how we can best serve them in the future. Therefore, I recommend we support and assist the many challenges in preparation of meeting our responsibilities and obligations for future years.

I recommend that the Committee on Masonic Research and Development continue the excellent seminar programs and not less than sixteen area presentations be made over a four week period during the months of January and February each year.

I recommend that the Committee on Subordinate Lodge Special Activities assemble a presentation on their responsibilities and obligations to the Craft in accordance with The Code for delivery by the District Deputy Grand Masters of each Masonic District to the membership of lodges in their respective districts.

I recommend that the revision of The Code Program be approved and completed as soon as possible.

To improve the educational process of our candidates, I recommend that the "Lodge System of Masonic Education" be a mandatory requirement.

GRAND LODGE OFFICE

Under the direction of our Grand Secretary, we have a great staff that is devoted to serving the three-hundred and eighty-eight (388) lodges and their total membership in this Grand Jurisdiction. Their loyalty and willingness to promptly respond to the many requests is superior and deserve our applause and thanks. Their efficiency and competence has made it possible for this Grand Master to serve the Craft in a special way. They have always been willing and understanding in performance in order that my duties and responsibilities would be enjoyable and without disappointment. To the Grand Lodge Office staff, I shall forever be grateful, and I thank you.

We are very fortunate to have a Grand Secretary that is dedicated and most willing to take an extra step to serve the Craft best. Right Worshipful Robert P. Dudley is devoted to his responsibilities and rendering services that will enhance Freemasonry in this Grand Jurisdiction. Above all, he is a Master Mason dedicated with a deep insight in the needs of the Craft. This Grand Master is full of gratitude and indebted for his support and counsel this Masonic year. He has never dictated or made demands to this Grand Master, but he has always offered counsel keeping me informed of the many areas that I may wish to consider in my actions and decision making. Brother Pete is a cornerstone and a jewel. Right Worshipful and Sir Knight, Robert P. Dudley, again, many thanks.

STATE OF THE CRAFT

I rejoice in reporting to you that the general state of the Craft in this Grand Jurisdiction is good. I have experienced the Craft at work in a harmonious manner sharing and teaching the principles and tenets of Freemasonry. I do believe our losses in membership has bottomed out, and shortly, I would expect an increase in North Carolina. In fact, a number of lodges did realize an increase in membership for the year 1992. I have noticed more young men joining our fraternity, and I expect this trend to continue.

Many of our lodges are sharing the story of Freemasonry in their communities through well planned activities and projects. The "Open House Project" has been very successful throughout North Carolina. The Craft is extremely pleased with the results of the program. The youth are excited and very interested in some of the activities.

I have experienced a high state of harmony as Master Masons are working together preparing for the future.

Unfortunately, we lost three lodges through voluntary consolidation. Ahoskie Lodge No. 684, Ahoskie, North Carolina: Aulander Lodge No. 516, Aulander, North Carolina; Colerain Lodge No. 171, Colerain, North Carolina and Davie Lodge No. 39, Lewiston, North Carolina. The membership of these four lodges saw fit to consolidate and became Davie Lodge No. 39, Ahoskie, North Carolina.

The membership of these four lodges have labored diligently and exemplified the teachings of Freemasonry in their deliberations and actions. Their wisdom and foresight is expected to cause our Fraternity to flourish and enjoy growth in the involved communities.

We have noted some improvement in our contributions for our Masonic Charities. However, our total individual gifts are less than fifty per cent of the needs of the approved Operating Expense of the Masonic and Eastern Star Home and Oxford Orphanage. Special gifts are necessary for the proposed Care Center at the Masonic and Eastern Star Home and the North Carolina Masonic Foundation. Brethren, our Masonic Charities are dependent on each of us. I ask you to give serious consideration to this challenge and obligation of caring and supplying the needs of our children at Oxford and Senior Citizens in Greensboro.

HONORS AND AWARDS

The office of Grand Master and the Master Mason serving in that position is highly recognized and honored in special and sometimes unique ways. This was very true this Masonic year as I traveled throughout this great state of North Carolina officially visiting all sixty-five districts and many lodges therein. All of the gifts were special, and I shall treasure them for life. They will be placed in my Masonic mementoes.

A number of lodges honored me by electing me "Honorary Member" of their lodge. One Shrine Temple and a Chapter of the National Sojourners honored me with "Honorary Member" certificates. I am indeed very thankful for these honorary memberships, and I shall always be appreciative of the trust and confidence bestowed upon me by the Craft.

We were very pleased and shall always treasure the wonderful events and the enjoyment of fellowship and brotherly love. Your efforts and services in promoting and maintaining a high level of Unity of Freemasonry in this Grand Jurisdiction deserve applause, and I thank you.

APPRECIATION

It is only proper and fitting that I convey my sincere appreciation and humble gratitude for the high honor that you, the 65,000 Master Masons in this Grand Jurisdiction of North Carolina, conferred, entrusted to me and your support this Masonic year, 1992-93. To serve you has been indeed an honor and privilege which I shall treasure for life. Brethren, your efforts and sacrifices have permitted me to carry out my responsibilities and obligations to Freemasonry and mankind. My brethren, I thank you, and I applaud you for your many contributions in support of generations yet to come.

To my wife, Jean, and my children, Stephen, Kathy, Michael, Deborah and Renee', I am forever thankful for your sacrifices and support over the many years in permitting me to serve Freemasonry and mankind. The special assistance and dedicated support of Jean and Deborah this year have permitted me to devote my full time and effort to my duties and responsibilities as the Grand Master of Masons in North Carolina. To my lovely wife, Jean, and children, I thank you, and I love you.

How time passes! One year ago, you, my brethren, gave me the opportunity to serve as your one-hundred thirty-ninth Grand Master. I shall ever be indebted and humbled for the honor and challenge to be a servant of Freemasonry. My brethren, I thank you from the depth of my heart, and I pray that future generations will be blessed with the contributions of our Great Fraternity as it has been my privilege to enjoy. May our children and grandchildren pause and say, they did their duty and were "Builders of the Future."

Respectfully submitted,
RAY NORRIS

AMENDMENTS TO THE CODE

We have considered the following amendments to THE CODE as submitted by the Committee on Unfinished Business which were presented at the Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge held on April 22, 1992 to be acted on at this Annual Communication.

The proposal to amend Regulation 32-03 was introduced by Mint Hill Lodge No. 742. If adopted this amendment would allow a Past D.D.G.L., who has not served as Master of a Lodge, to be appointed to serve as a D.D.G.M.

Amend Regulation 32-03 to read as follows:

REGULATION 32-03. Each District Deputy Grand Master shall be a Master, Past Master or Past District Deputy Grand Lecturer. In addition thereto he shall be well skilled in the authorized work of the three degrees of Symbolic Masonry as defined in Chapters 29 and 30, and well informed in the best business practices for Masonic lodges and the law, custom, and usage of the craft in this Grand Jurisdiction, and he shall be and remain a resident of his district and a member of a subordinate lodge therein. (3-01(5); 12-02).

We recommend that the Grand Lodge reject this proposed amendment.

(REJECTED)

The proposal to add Regulation 38-02(1A) to THE CODE was introduced by the Finance Committee. If adopted this amendment would allow the Grand Treasurer and the Grand Secretary to attend all meetings of the Committee on Finance. As worded the amendment could be construed to prohibit the committee from excluding either the Grand Treasurer or the Grand Secretary from its deliberations. The committee has amended the proposal by adding the phrase "Except when requested to excuse himself by a majority vote of the members of the committee present" to the first sentence of the proposed regulation.

Amend Regulation 38-02 by adding subsection (1A) to read as follows:

REGULATION 38-02(1A). Except when requested to excuse himself by a majority vote of the members of the committee present, the Grand Treasurer and the Grand Secretary shall attend, without the right to vote, all meetings of the Finance Committee. 2. The Secretary shall during the annual closing of the Lodge of Sorrow read the names of all deceased brethren with dates of birth, initiation, passed, raised, and death.

Amend The Code by adding a new Regulation 90-24 to read as follows:

Three black cubes would be required to reject any petition or other matter subject to a secret ballot.

Amend Regulation 57-24 to read as follows:
REGULATION 57-24. Such petition shall take the same course as that of a profane for the degrees and three black cubes shall be required to reject the petitioner. If the petitioner is elected to receive the remaining degree or degrees and to become a member of the lodge so electing him; then the status of the brother shall be the same as if he had received all of the degrees in such lodge. If he received the first or second degree in a lodge in this state which is defunct, and petitions another lodge in this state for advancement and membership, the fees therefore shall not exceed the amount chargeable as fees in the by-laws of the lodge to which he makes petition, less the charity tax and the initiation fee provided for in Chapter 54. Amend Regulation 76-04 (6) to read as follows:

REGULATION 76-04 (6). In case only three black cubes appear, the Master shall not then declare the result; but immediately at the same communication order a reballot without discussion on the part of the members or any intervening act or business, the result of the reballot shall be declared, and it shall be final except as provided in Regulation 76-16. [60-08; 71-04; 76-19; 76-20; 91-01(17)].

Amend Regulation 76-04 (8) to read as follows:

REGULATION 76-04 (8). In any secret ballot white balls are affirmative and black cubes are negative votes. [47-07; 73-03; 74-13; 76-27; 83-17].

The Grand Master issued an Order dated December 14, 1992 suspending the Brother for a period of three (3) years for unmasonic conduct. The Brother is to be automatically reinstated on December 14, 1995.

TRIAL DOCKET NO. 605: In the matter of charges preferred against T.W.M., a Master Mason, a member of Dillsboro Lodge No. 459, A. F. & A. M.

The Grand Master issued an Order dated December 14, 1992 finding the Brother guilty of unmasonic conduct of a serious nature, and thereby, the Brother was dismembered and expelled from the Fraternity.

TRIAL DOCKET NO. 604: In the matter of charges preferred against J.W.M., Master Mason, a member of Dillsboro Lodge No. 459, A. F. & A. M.

The Grand Master issued an Order dated December 14, 1992 finding the Brother guilty of unmasonic conduct of a serious nature, and therefore, ordered the Brother dismembered and expelled from the Fraternity.

TRIAL DOCKET NO. 603: In the matter of charges preferred against W.W.D., a Master Mason, a member of Dillsboro Lodge No. 459, A. F. & A. M.

The Grand Master issued an Order dated December 14, 1992, finding the Brother guilty of unmasonic conduct of a serious nature, but found that there were mitigating circumstances, and therefore, ordered the Brother suspended for a period of five (5) years. The Brother is to be automatically restored on December 14, 1997.

In the matter of charges preferred against W.B.C., SR., a Master Mason, a member of Conover Lodge No. 709. The Judge Advocate refused to prefer charges against the accused and dismissed the complaint filed by B.A.L. This Committee approves the action of the Judge Advocate.

In the matter of charges preferred against T.C.N., a Master Mason. These charges were preferred by another Master Mason against T.C.N. The Judge Advocate refused to entertain the charges and dismissed the same. The Committee on Appeals fully affirms the action of the Judge Advocate.

In the matter of charges preferred against D.R.G., a Master Mason, a member of Oxford Lodge No. 122, A. F. & A. M. The Judge Advocate refused to entertain the charges and, therefore, dismissed the same. The Committee on Appeals fully affirms the action of the Judge Advocate.

3. There are three (3) petitions for restoration. The Committee has carefully considered all of these petitions, and do make the following recommendations:

TRIAL DOCKET NO. 360: In the matter of expulsion of T.J.W., formerly a member of Bush Hill Lodge No. 732, A. F. & A. M.

The Petitioner was dismembered on the 13th day of December, 1978 as a result of pleading guilty to second degree murder and assault inflicting serious injuries. While there are numerous letters in the file attesting to the behavior and good conduct of the dismembered Brother since his release from prison, the Committee feels that due to the seriousness of the crimes upon which the Petitioner was convicted and as a result was dismembered, that at the present time he should not be reinstated for membership.

TRIAL DOCKET NO. 381: In the matter of the petition of restoration for P.B.M., formerly a member Casar Lodge No. 579, A. F. & A. M.

The Petitioner was dismembered on the 17th day of March, 1980, by the Judge Advocate. On the 6th day of December, 1979, Petitioner was found guilty of a felony which resulted by driving under the influence of alcohol resulting in death of a victim. He was imprisoned for a term for three (3) years and assigned to a work release camp. The Committee recommends that he be reinstated.

TRIAL DOCKET NO. 508: In the matter of W.R.C., formerly a member of Lillington Lodge No. 302, A. F. & A. M.

Petitioner was dismembered on the 19th day of January, 1988, by the Judge Advocate for the offense of involuntary manslaughter. The Committee feels that the Petitioner's petition should be denied at the present time.

Respectfully submitted this 21 day of April 1993.

GRAND MASTER

Brother Ray was raised to the Sublime Degree of Master Mason on June 30, 1958 in Waynesville Lodge No. 259 of which he is still a member. He was installed as the 136th Grand Master of Masons in North Carolina on April 22, 1992.

During his thirty-five years of service to Freemasonry he has worked in many important and varied capacities, and has received numerous awards and accolades, for the diligent and distinguished services he has performed.

For those of us who have known Ray longest, it is almost as if he had lived his entire life in preparation for his year of service in the highest office which Freemasonry affords.

His year as our Grand Master is one which the Masons of this great State are justly proud. His labors have been unceasing, he has called his Fellow Officers and all the Brethren to a higher, nobler degree of Masonic Service.

Through the dignity of his leadership he has inspired us all, never hesitating because the project was difficult, or the message unpopular.

We are more aware and better informed because of his program "Builders of the Future."

Our "Greatest of all Fraternities" is greater still, because he has served. Through his leadership our members are better informed with regard to the Masonic and Eastern Star Home, The Oxford Orphanage and the Grand Lodge of North Carolina. These Institutions provide comfort and joy to our elderly Brothers and Sisters, a loving, happy home which nurtures and educates our children. The Grand Lodge system of government provides for our 388 Lodges and 65,000 Masons of this Grand Jurisdiction.

The Grand Lodge of North Carolina has been most visible and well represented in all sixty-five districts of this great state. We have been represented with dignity, integrity and decorum in our Mother Grand Lodge of Great Britain and at many of the Grand Lodges throughout America.

The Masons of North Carolina are more aware of the great heritage and their duties and responsibilities as Freemasons because of Brother Ray's own deep and sincere dedication to the Craft.

It is most fitting that our Friend and Brother, Ray Norris should wear the "Purple of our Fraternity." With grateful appreciation we salute you Grand Master for the zeal, dedication, effectiveness and integrity of your year as our esteemed leader.

Respectfully submitted,
Board of General Purposes

On behalf of the Grand Lodge Officers we would like to thank each of you for staying for our installation service.

I would like to express my deep appreciation to Worshipful Brother Windell Cunningham, Grand Music Director for playing the piano throughout the service and arranging for the beautiful choral selections, "Teach Me To Love" and "Blest Be the Tie That Binds," which were sung by Brothers Herb Meyers, Luther Morris, Fred Langford, Pete Quinby, Bill Nunn, Ed Eccles, Dick Lane, and Jim Fowler.

Also a special thank you to Worshipful Brother Wilton L. Hipp, who apointed me in line in Mount Holly Lodge No. 544 in 1963 and served as Grand Marshal during the installation. Many thanks to the Master and Officers of Mount Holly Lodge No. 544 for filling the chairs during the installation and for staying to close the Grand Lodge after we dismiss for refreshments.
